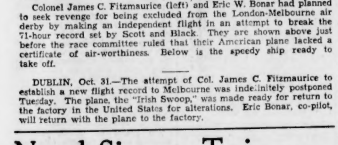
JAPAN REFUSES NAVAL PLAN SURRENDER

Fliers Call Off Their 'Revenge' Hop

Colonel James C. Fitzmaurice (left) and Eric W. Bonar had planned to seek revenge for being excluded from the London-Melbourne air derby by making an independent flight in an attempt to break the 71-hour record set by Scott and Black. They are shown above just before the race committee ruled that their American plane lacked a certificate of air-worthiness. Below is the speedy ship ready to take off.



DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—The attempt of Col. James C. Fitzmaurice to establish a new flight record to Melbourne was indefinitely postponed Tuesday. The plane, the "Irish Swoop," was made ready for return to the factory in the United States for alterations, Eric Bonar, co-pilot, will return with the plane to the factory.

Noted Siamese Twin Girls To Be Married

MANSFIELD, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The Hilton "Siamese" twins came forth again Tuesday with pronouncements. Violet that she would marry in South Carolina "soon" and Daisy that she "might get married in six months." The sisters are filling a stage engagement here. Violet said they would go to Harrisburg, Pa., to join an orchestra with which Maurice Lambert, her trombonist sweetheart, plays for a southern tour.

BRUNO ACCUSED BY NEW SOURCE

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 31—The Enquirer says today that a federal prisoner held at Troy, O., has set down in writing that Bruno Richard Hauptmann told him he kidnapped the Lindbergh baby and needed help in handling the ransom money.

The prisoner, D. Y. Sanders, formerly of Schenectady, N.Y., now held at Troy on a charge of impersonating a federal officer, has stated that he initiated negotiations to dispose of the ransom and did get rid of part of it in Germany, the newspaper relates.

Americans Win Sweep Fortunes Of $150,000 Each

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Three Americans each were $150,000 wealthier today by the victory of Wychwood Abbot at Newmarket in the Cambridgeshire handicap.

Holders of tickets on Wychwood Abbot in the United States were: Mrs. F. Fenz, Magrath, L.I.; Ming Mac Nesson, Astoria, L.I., and a person who signed his ticket with the nom de plume "Never Quit," New York.

Payrolls! Payrolls! Payrolls!

Wages totalling $340,000.00 are handed to Edmontonians every week—$18,000,000.00 last year.

How much retail business IS done by this $340,000.00? How much retail business CAN be done by this weekly $340,000.00? Whether Edmonton's payroll money turns over 1 time or 10 times depends ON NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING — depends on whether you offer and exchange your goods and services with others in your community.

The maximum number of times money turns over, so long as that money stays within the community, is estimated at 10 times; the minimum is once.

It is for Edmonton merchants to decide whether Edmonton's weekly payroll of $340,000.00 will turn over ONCE or turn over 10 times.

Payroll money can be increasingly turned over by effective newspaper advertising stimulating desires for goods and services. The money is here and will be spent with the advertising merchants.

Equality Demand Is Final

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — Hirosi Saito, Japanese ambassador to the United States, asserted last night his country is demanding a navy equal to the strongest in the world because the Japanese insist their empire is the equal of any other nation.

LONDON, Oct. 31. — The Japanese delegation to the naval conversations, it was authoritatively learned, will inform the United States representatives late today there can be no surrender on the question of the principle of naval tonnage equality. The Japanese will make it clear, it was learned, that unless the British and Americans are willing to concede equality there is virtually no hope for an agreement.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Tsuneo Matsudaira, Japan's ambassador to Great Britain, moved Tuesday to break the deadlock gripping the three-power naval conversations here.

Prime factor in the deadlock has been Japan's insistence on her right to equality, and it was believed this evening that the Japanese now are willing to accept more general expression of the principle of equality, in which case some face-saving clause may be offered them.

BULGAR KING RISKS HIS LIFE FOR ENGINEER

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 31—King Boris risked his life Tuesday to save an engineer from death in his burning locomotive, and then himself took the throttle to bring the train more than 100 miles to Varna.

The king left his special car, attached to the train, near Strazica when fire broke out in the coal tender. Noticing the engineer's clothes were aflame, he climbed into the cab and pulled the burning garments from the man's body.

After arranging for medical care for the seriously injured engineer, Boris took the driver's place and drove the locomotive the rest of the way to Varna.

A report a bomb placed on the royal locomotive had caused the fire was denied.

TORONTO FLIER, PUPIL KILLED

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—Flying Instructor O'Brien Saint and a pupil, believed named Hand, were killed today when their plane crashed near the field of the Toronto Flying club.

The instructor was killed instantly and the pupil died shortly afterward from injuries.

CAMP BORDEN FATALITY

CAMP BORDEN, Ont., Oct. 31.—Sergeant T. S. Hunter of the Royal Canadian Air Force was killed today in the crash of a Siskin fighting aeroplane which he was flying alone.

LAST AIRMAN GETS GREETING

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 31. —Competitors in the London to Melbourne air derby today paraded through Melbourne streets to the applause of thousands.

C. J. Melrose, Australian competitor, who had only just arrived, concluding his solo flight from England, was accorded a special ovation. The fliers were feted at a luncheon by the state government of Victoria.

Film Monster Risks Life For Mongrel

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—He's a master — and servant.

But, to avoid injuring a mongrel dog, he risked his life.

Peter Lorre, famous European actor, is best known for his portrayal of the murderer, "M," in the film of that title.

Off the screen he is a vastly different fellow.

While he was en route from his home to Columbia Studios, a black-and-tan pup darted into Sunset Blvd.

In a split-second, Lorre made his choice. He steered the shining juggernaught toward a telephone pole.

Trained Dog Held Guilty Of Stealing

LANSING, Kan., Oct. 31—A dog trained to steal chicken was held equally as guilty as its master and sentenced to a term in jail.

Lamont Dog's Large Litter Includes Cat

Odear! Odear! When and where will it all end?

Five-legged pigs, carrots with seven-legs-and-a-wart, Dionne quintuplets, quintuplet Siamese kittens—and now a Lamont, Alta., police dog "Mammy" with thirteen pups and an adopted kitten.

T. B. Lilge of Lamont is authority for a story that at the home of M. Wurzhuber, the prolific canine presented her prolific litter to a cold and frosty world. Four have passed into the dog's happy hunting ground, but during a brief excursion from the litter, "Mammy" found an apparently homeless kitten which she carried back, placed it with the remaining nine of her family—and all are being nurtured and raised together.

Stolen Auto Is Recovered With New Tires, Radio

CADIZ, Oct. 31. — Robert Hennen wants to thank the thoughtful thieves who stole his automobile. The car was found abandoned Tuesday near Wertina, W. Va., and Hennen found the thieves had installed a complete set of new tires, a radio and a heater.

TITLE ROMANCE GOES ON ROCKS

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The former Prince of Asturias, who threw away his title and a chance at the Spanish throne to marry a Cuban commoner, was reported today to have lost his bride after 15 months of marriage.

Count De Cavadonga, the title adopted by the Prince, after his marriage, is living alone at a hotel, and it was reported his wife has left him to return to her mother.

U.S. To Prevent Chain Store War

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Success appeared imminent today in the United States government's fight to prevent a chain store labor war from wrecking President Roosevelt's industrial truce.

Optimistic comment came from officials of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company as they and union representatives went home to consider a seven-point program laid down by the government.

Bishop Disclaims Intention Placing Individual Blame

Expressing gratification with the assurance of Dr. R. C. Wallace, president of the University of Alberta, that the latter is very anxious over the alleged undermining of religious beliefs at the University, Rt. Rev. Arthur E. Burgett, Anglican Bishop of Edmonton, today issued a reply to the recent statement of the University head, in which he says he has no intention of bringing personal charges against any professor.

Bishop Burgett asks, however, that every effort be made to prevent a repetition of the matters complained of by Edmonton churchmen whose sermons on the subject first brought the controversy to the fore.

"Dr. Wallace asks for specific charges to be made," said Bishop Burgett in his statement today. "Personally, I have no intention of bringing a specific charge against any professor. That would only place a mark on him and do him injury, which we have no wish to do."

READILY UNDERSTOOD

"It will also be readily understood that for any student, who has come to us, as many have, and complained of a professor's statement having been anti-Christian and having upset their faith, the fact of using their name and evidence would also place a mark upon them, to which they would naturally object.

"We have no wish to injure any one, either the University, a professor or a student, but we felt compelled by the number of parents and students who have appealed to us clergy to try to stop these anti-Christian remarks in lecture, and to speak boldly from

2 SHIPS WITH CREWS MISSING IN BIG STORM

Mystery Surrounds Fate of Small Vessels in St. Lawrence Gulf

HALIFAX, Oct. 31—Mystery shrouded the fate of perhaps a half-dozen steamers today as wireless messages telling of the sinking of two ships off Anticosti only part of the crew of one Island recounted the rescue of vessel.

The messages, picked up by the East Coast Radio Signal Service, said the steamship Roy David and an unnamed schooner had foundered off the island, with all but one of the schooner's crew making land.

Of the steamer's complement there came no word and it was feared here she had gone to the bottom with all hands. All that remained of her today were floating drums of coal oil and fresh vegetables, which came drifting ashore with scattered bits of wreckage.

No indication of the causes of the wrecks was given in the brief messages received here from signal service's station at Ellis May, but it appeared likely both craft had been caught in the Gulf of St. Lawrence storm.

AMERICAN ACES TO SUE PERSIA

CALCUTTA, India, Oct. 31. — John Wright and John Polando, American fliers in the Melbourne derby who were detained last week near the Persian border for more than 24 hours, said today they intended to claim damages from the Persian government.

After stripping their engine they were amazed to find a faulty cylinder was cracked, as they first believed, and they may now continue the abandoned flight to Melbourne. Otherwise they will sail from Bombay for London November 10.

Their purpose in returning to London is to discuss their detention in Persia with the air race committee. The fliers hoped both the British and United States governments will co-operate with them in their plan to ask damages.

ENGLISH BEAT SCOTS BY 2-1

STAMFORD BRIDGE, London Oct. 31—Coming from behind, the English League defeated the Scottish League by 2-1 this afternoon to take the lead in the inter-league soccer competition of the new season. Scottish led 1-0 at half time. The game was played in miserable weather conditions before a small crowd.

Dr. Cosmo Lang Fetes Birthday

Teamwork Their Forte

The team of General Max Weygand (above) and General Gamelin (below).

The team Weygand-Gamelin is getting to be nearly as famous as the celebrated Foch-Weygand team was during the war. On the same date in 1930 that Weygand got his promotion to the highest post in the French army, Gamelin was appointed chief of the general staff.

GERMAN SPY RING REVEALED

PARIS, Oct. 31.—An exciting chapter in the operation of a German espionage system in the Saar was disclosed today with the announcement that Johannes Rathke, fifty-year-old Rathke man, alleged master mind of a Saar spy ring, and the aid who served as Rathke's "eyes," Aloysius Frischmann, twenty-four, had been convicted of espionage at Metz.

Rathke was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment. Frischmann received a two-year term. Rathke, it was announced, is a former captain in a Prussian regiment.

2 CARS NEEDED IN RELIEF LOAD

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 31—When Rev. A. E. Doan, pastor of Grace United Church at Essex set out to make up a railroad car load and produce for shipment to the Saskatchewan drought area, he accomplished something far beyond his expectations. He started loading the car on a siding here yesterday and his plea for donations met such a response he was forced to charter another car to take care of all the stuff that came in. Sixty tons in all were received.

German Doctor Strolls On Water

GIESSEN, Germany, Oct. 31—Dr. Schmitt, a lively, well known medical practitioner and professor, can be seen every evening "walking" on the Lahn river in his "water boots." His "boots" are nine-feet-long pieces of well varnished wood, rounded at the ends and resting on the water. The two "boots" work like boats and are able to carry a full-grown person.

C.N.R. Official Dies At Coast

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31—One of the most popular officers of the Canadian National Railways staff in Vancouver died Wednesday, in the person of Edgar McDonald, 56, who has been district mail and baggage agent here since 1920. He had 26 years with the Canadian National and its predecessor companies.

WOMEN BARRED IN MEN'S BAR

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—To the male of the species who has been driven out of his native habitat, Frank A. Ready, manager of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York, today brought a word of cheer. He said:

"We're going to have a bar for men only."

It's going to be equipped with a rail and a sign "No Women Allowed." According to Ready, all the wise men of Broadway predict it will be a complete failure. He added:

"But regardless of that there should be one high class hotel bar in the country where a man can get a drink and smoke a cigar without hearing woman's talk. There are ten other bars in my hotel where the women can go."

France Declines Notice Of Plans To Quell Putsch

PARIS, Oct. 31.—France has notified Great Britain she has made all preparations to crush any attempt at a Nazi Putsch in the Saar region, it was learned today. Charles Corbin, the French Ambassador to London, outlined to Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, technical measures taken by France to place at the disposal of the League of Nations forces necessary to prevent any subversive action.

French soldiers will move in, said the foreign office, only if the League of Nations requests it, but the army was bracing itself to protect French mines and citizens of the Saar and to prevent border disturbances.

Anti-Nazis in the Saar, who look to France for protection, informed Paris of fresh rumors that 17,000 Saar Nazis now in labor camps across the German frontier were planning a Putsch the night of Jan. 13, 1935.

This is the date of the plebiscite in which residents will vote on whether they wish to return to the pre-war status of German possession, become a part of France, or remain under the jurisdiction of the League of Nations.

Anxiety has been unconcealed during the last few weeks in French government circles and Marshal Henri Petain was understood to have discussed the use of the army before a secret finance commission yesterday when he announced he intended to ask a budget increase of 800,000,000 francs for re-furnishing war equipment.

Some officials asserted, however, that the Alsace-Lorraine garrisons were preparing themselves "as a move to discourage the Nazis from attempting violence."

ARMS SELLERS GIVEN THREAT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—Death awaits some American arms salesmen in South America.

Reports to that effect have been received by the senate munitions investigating committee, Stephen Raushenbush, secretary, has disclosed.

Bitterness is rampant in South America against American munitions sellers, because of evidence submitted to the committee that bribery was used to effect sales, Raushenbush said. He said:

"Private reports to us are that the safety of some of the agents of American arms companies will not be protected in South America after their way of doing business was exposed."

LIFE RESTORED TO DEAD MAN

MOSCOW, Oct. 31—Russian scientists said today they had restored life for two minutes to a man who had hanged himself three hours earlier by the use of an artificial heart.

The heart is a device invented by Sergei Bruikhanenko to do the joint work of the heart and lungs in purifying the blood.

Prof. C. I. Spasskokukotsky announced the results of the experiment, which is the first made on a human, although many have been held on animals.

Golden Nail Polish New Paris Style

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Although "all that glitters is not gold," maybe the shining fingernail of the Parisian beauty is worth a fortune.

For liquid gold dust is the latest manicuring craze in the "gay light city."

Yellow tints have taken the French capital by storm and bronze and light metallic pearl Chinese lacquers frequently speckled with gold are rapidly supplanting diamonds and rubies as finger decorations, according to the fashion setters.

FAVORITE WINS IN NEWMARKET HISTORIC RACE

Wychwood Abbot First, Commander II. Second, Highlander Third

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 31. —The favorite Wychwood Abbot won the historic Cambridgeshire Stakes this afternoon with Commander II second, and Highlander third in the field of 33.

Wychwood Abbot raced the distance of a mile and an eighth in the last great race of the dying flat-racing season, under an impost of 118 pounds, 15 pounds under top weight of 133 allotted to Denibigh. He is owned by O. V. Whatney and was ridden by Perryman.

Commander III carried 116 pounds in the silks of A. B. Briscoe, with Jockey Harry Beasley up. Highlander, owned by Lord Derby and ridden by the veteran Weston, carried 114 pounds.

The winner started at overnight odds of 9 to 1. Commander III was 40 to 1 and Highlander 22 to 1.

The finish was one of the most exciting in the 108 years of the big handicap. Wychwood Abbott crossed the wire half a length in front of Commander who beat Highlander for the place by only a short head.

ALBERTA TORY PARTY SPLIT

Alberta Conservatives are split wide open over the forced retirement of the Hon. H. H. Stevens, D. M. Duggan, M.L.A., Alberta Conservative leader, and Col. F. C. Jamieson, K.C., M.L.A., spoke too soon in support of Mr. Stevens, according to members of the executive committee of the provincial association.

Calgary definitely slands by Bennett, and word has gone out that no more public statements are to be made in the name of the Alberta Conservative Association until a properly constituted meeting is held.

The rank and file demand support of Stevens, but Senator Gillette, Alberta organizer, is firm in support of Prime Minister Bennett.

POLICE CRUSH DENVER MOB

DENVER, Oct. 31.—A mob of about 200 strike agitators whose leaders urged them to "meet police bullets with bullets," gathered in suburban Englewood today for another march on Denver relief projects, but disbanded when armed officers arrived unexpectedly.

Horses Tail Lost, Damage Suit, Too

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 31.—A jury has decided a horse's tail is worth $250. They returned a verdict against Sam Kocholski, who sued John Smith, a neighbor, for $297 after alleging he had cut Smith lost its tail in a threshing machine.

Albany Again Is Heavily Guarded

ALBANY, N.Y., Oct. 31.—Heavy police guards were again ordered on duty in Albany today as word was received that "hunger marchers," beaten back in a brief, bloody battle last night, might again attempt to enter the city with reinforcements.

the pulpit, asking for its discontinuance.

"Why should professors, who are selected to teach a particular subject, choose to bring religion or anti-religion into their lectures? All we desire is to bring this matter forward, so that it may be stopped in future. Dr. Wallace, whom I believe to be a Christian man and anxious for the welfare of the students, can rely upon all the Christian ministers of religion in the city to support him wholeheartedly, if he takes steps to stop the anti-Christian remarks, concerning which complaint has been made.

NO THOUGHT OF IT

"As to attacking the students, there is no thought of any such thing. We are only concerned for their spiritual welfare, and desire to help and protect those who have appealed to us, and who are often the product of our own Sunday schools.

"When a small body of clergy walked upon the president of the university and privately mentioned these matters to him, we all came away feeling much discouraged, as there did not seem to any of us, that there was much sympathy for our mission.

"However, once more let me reiterate—we do ask that the president of the university will speak to his faculty and do his utmost to see that there is no repetition of the matters of which we complain, and he can rely on our support and cooperation to the full, if he does so.

Crisis Again Facing Slavs

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 31 —Possibility of another political crisis loomed Tuesday after the resignation of Minister of Justice Bozhidar Maximovich, regarded as the strongest Serbian member of the cabinet.

His action, it was understood, was taken because former Premier Milan Serskich, now minister without portfolio, protested Maximovich's pensioning of seven Bosnian judges who refused to carry out prosecutions.

Saskatchewan To Buy Grain

REGINA, Oct. 31. — Saskatchewan's government will purchase "millions of bushels" of feed and seed grain for distribution among drouth area farmers.

Hon. J. G. Taggart, minister of Agriculture, leaves Wednesday for Winnipeg to discuss purchase with grain trade officials.

No exact estimate was available of the number of bushels involved in the purchase.

Early Morning Fire At Camrose

CAMROSE, Oct. 31.—A severe early morning fire practically destroyed a large frame building here on Main street this morning. The lower floor had been in use as the boy scout hall and the upper rooms as a girls' residence. No one was injured although one woman barely escaped in time. Some personal effects were lost.

TWO SEAMEN FEARED LOST

ELLIS BAY, Anticosti Island, Oct. 31—Two seamen were lost Tuesday when the small schooner Roy David foundered in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, according to a report received here last night.

Details were lacking but it was stated that Captain Brien and one of his men had gone down with the ship. Other members of the crew reached Clarke City in an open boat.

U.S. Protests Relief Boost

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—A roar of protest rose from the Republican high command Tuesday as the Democratic administration, with the election a week off, poured $135,000,000 of relief money into every state except Maine, which voted in September.

The Republican senatorial-congressional campaign committee, in a statement, asserted that "Again the new deal administration convicts itself of the charge of using federal relief funds for political purposes and as a substitute for a campaign fund."

SIXTY MINERS CALL STRIKE UNDERGROUND

KATOWICE, Poland, Oct. 31.—Sixty coalminers seeking to prevent the dismissal of a coal mine's crew of 200 men, were hungerstriking underground here Tuesday.

Authorities had decided to close the pit. Police were unsuccessful in attempt to induce the hunger strikers to return to the surface.

Railway Snarl Coming To End

MOSCOW, Oct. 31—Seventeen months of wrangling over the sale of the Chinese Eastern railway to Manchukuo appeared today on the verge of resulting in transfer of the property for 140,000,000 yen (about $40,180,000) if details can be arranged.

Soviet Russia has agreed to accept this offer, made by Koki Hirota, Japanese foreign minister, on behalf of Manchukuo, but is unwilling to transfer the title with guarantees of payment other than Manchukuo's promise to pay.

LIQUOR CHARGE TO BE PROBED

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—Inquiry by Royal Commission under Judge Duncan C. Ross of the county court at St. Thomas, will be made into the liquor "toll gate" charges which arose in last spring's election campaign, "just as soon as organization of the commission can be completed."

During the heated campaign before the election last June 19, it was charged by Mr. Hepburn that a "toll gate" had been established so manufacturers were forced to pay commissions to have their liquors placed with the Liquor Control Board for sale to the public.

Ottawa Hears Drought Data

OTTAWA, Oct. 31. — Premier J. G. Gardiner of Saskatchewan went before the Dominion cabinet Tuesday and told in complete detail the harrowing story of successive tribulations that have befallen the people of his province through drought, crop failures, sandstorms, grasshoppers and depression.

Boy Never Too Old To Slap Is Mother's Opinion

CALGARY, Oct. 31—A "boy" is never too old to slap believes Mrs. Catherine Pilling, 97-year-old resident of Cardston, Alta., who took her 77-year-old son, "Dick," to task because he hurt while pulling a tooth for his mother.

"Oh," and then a resounding slap from the near centenarian brought "Dick" to order as he finished his dentistry work. He had used a family heirloom—a set of forceps left by his dentist grandfather—in his work.

Church Leader In Mexico Says Rumors Are False

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 31—Archbishop Ruiz, apostolic delegate to Mexico, declared Tuesday that although "thousands upon thousands are out of sympathy with the outrages against religion" by the Mexican government, the Roman Catholic Church has advocated neither armed resistance by Mexican Catholics nor intervention by the United States.

SOCIALISTS TO PUSH BATTLE

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Indalecio Prieto, Spanish Socialist leader said Tuesday the Socialists of Spain will continue to fight against "reaction."

Prieto arrived here after fleeing Spain, and expressed the opinion the government of Alejandro Lerroux "won't last more than three or four months, because every one of these revolutionary movements that is suppressed increases the strength and determination in the opposition."

WHOSE HOME IS SAFE?

According to the Lethbridge Herald, 944 residences in that city, out of approximately 2300, have arrears of taxes charged against them, "through inability of the owners to pay."

Lethbridge many years ago adopted one type of the "town manager" system of civic government. No particular virtue attaches to the name by which an administrator is called, whether commissioner, manager or supervisor. The proportion of homes encumbered by arrearages is about the same in Lethbridge as in other western cities, where administrative systems are different.

The Herald locates the cause of tax arrears and municipal financial troubles, in other cities as well as in Lethbridge, with deadly accuracy. "Inability of the owners to pay" is the reason why homes are blanketed with arrears, covered by caveats, threatened by confiscation. Taxpayer earnings have been cut in half, in thousands of cases altogether wiped out. But the tax overhead remains, and is eating up the owner's equity in his property.

"Sound" money deflation has struck the home in striking the earning power of the homeowner: one home in every three, if not one in every two.

THEY WILL BE REMEMBERED

Apologists for the general wretchedness of the last four years are inviting the Canadian public to remember with gratitude the vast sums of money the Dominion Government has spent for the relief of unemployment.

There is no possibility that the public will fail to remember these hand-outs, whether with gratitude or otherwise. They couldn't forget if they tried. For one thing, the bond-holders wouldn't let them. And the record is written too deep in the hearts and minds of Canadian men and women to ever fade.

No monument is needed, and no admonitory allusions, to keep green the memory of the way the present Government of Canada has dealt with unemployment. Lost homes, wrecked lives, vanished savings, wasted years, plus the millions spent on unemployment relief, make up the score of what the people of Canada have paid to maintain the gallery of blocked trade, bear money, wholesale deflation, and mounting debt.

These things will be remembered. Nobody need worry about that. What the public would like to be told is how soon the Government will permit them to go to the polls and put an end to the policy that creates unemployment and makes doles necessary.

ALL IN THE DAY'S WORK

Kingsford-Smith, flying up the Pacific from Australia to San Francisco, chose the worst possible time if he hoped to attract attention. World interest has been centred upon the great air race from England to Melbourne, and Smith must be content with less interest than is due to his remarkable achievement.

Yet in time he and his flight will be of more importance to aviation than the helter-skelter dash of a score of planes half way around the world. The "hop" from Suva to Honolulu is ten times as long as any water jump on the route from England to Melbourne, much longer than the jump from Newfoundland to Ireland. Smith has covered that lonely stretch of water twice; signal proof of the dependability and range of the airplane.

The airmen who fly Canada's far northern routes from Edmonton can appreciate somewhat the scant attention that is being paid to this daring flier of the Pacific. They, too, fail to get the credit that is their due. Summer and winter, and in all sorts of weather, they carry passengers, express, mail and freight from point to point in the remote hinterland, with remarkably few mishaps. For skill, courage, hardihood and resourcefulness they take second place to none. Their daily occupation calls for these qualities, in quite as great degree as shown by the racers who "hop" oceans and continents for prizes.

These northern airmen are providing in large measure the transportation service necessary to support the greatest mining activity now going on in this continent. The world pays little attention to them. But they are doing more in any one day to directly contribute to its recovery and welfare than all the air races that were ever staged.

A POLITICAL FLARE-BACK

The first "mistake" of Hon. H. H. Stevens was in assuming that his "mass buying" committee would be allowed to go outside the very carefully worded resolution of instructions which Premier Bennett put through the House of Commons. His second miscalculation was in supposing that the public could be got to believe "mass buying" was the root cause of our industrial difficulties.

The committee did not wander far outside the prescribed bounds, but it wandered far enough to make Mr. Stevens responsible if its operations provoked a storm among the financial allies of the Government. And it didn't wander far enough to capture the popular imagination and bring votes to off-set the political loss from this cleavage between the cabinet and its backers.

The Ontario bye-elections last month spelled the doom of the chairman of the committee. The Government lost two seats out of three, captured none, and in the industrial constituency of East Toronto "Tommy" Church only got in by a majority so heavily reduced that the result was a condemnation. The "mass buying" adventure had flared-back. It antagonized the moneyed allies of the Government; and it didn't rally the voters to its support.

Had those bye-elections gone the other way, Mr. Stevens might, probably would, still be Minister of Trade and Commerce and chairman of the mass buying commission. When the committee's operations, and the pamphlet and speeches based thereon, were shown to be dynamite for the Government's racketeering friends and "dude" so far as the popular vote was concerned, it was only a question of when Mr. Bennett would get back from Europe how long Mr. Stevens would be allowed to stay on the job.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

About 400 men have been working the bars below Edmonton this summer for gold, and have made from $1.50 to $4 a day.

A strange, showing of the distant Rockies with their snowy peaks, was distinctly visible from the Cliff yesterday afternoon between two and three o'clock, and was witnessed by about one hundred people. Persons who know the mountains said the mirage showed the peaks south of Mountain Heaps.

Tete Jaune Cache takes its name from Tete Jaune, a yellow-haired halfbreed, who started in the fall of the year to cross the mountains, an adventure which at the time was considered fool hardy and dangerous. The route not having been travelled before him, while the spot where he cached the furs is called Tete Jaune's Cache.

A brigade of British troops has left India for Hong Kong, the first contingent of 6,000 troops to be sent there to protect the treaty ports in China.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Vigo, Spain.—Four Russian battleships of the Baltic squadron put into this port to coal, but were ordered to depart. Prince Keretelli gave out an official explanation of the attack on the British fishing fleet off the Dogger Bank: "The transport Anatol which was steaming ahead of the squadron was suddenly surrounded by eight torpedo boats and requested assistance, whereupon the battleship division advanced and mistook the unknown vessels to leave or disclose their nationality. The vessels refused to obey and advanced among the Russian ships. Suddenly a cannon shot was heard from an unknown vessel. Then the admiral formed into battle line and replied to the fire, afterward proceeding on his voyage." The Prince said the Admiral feared the strange boats were Japanese torpedo boats, as the Japanese were known to have purchased such boats in England.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Petrograd.—Turkey has started war against Russia, a Turkish cruiser bombarding a town in the Crimea for more than an hour. The vessel is supposed to be the Brealau, a former German cruiser which escaped into Turkish waters when pursued by British and French warships.

Rome.—The Czar has offered to turn over to Italy all the Austrian prisoners of Italian nationality on condition that Italy does not allow them to go back to Austria.

London.—Prince Louis of Battenberg has resigned his position of first sea Lord of the Admiralty, owing to the prejudice aroused by reason of his Austrian descent.

Inspector Worsley, R.N.W.M.P., has been appointed superintendent.

TEN YEARS AGO

London.—The general elections returns thus far give the Conservatives 160 seats, the Labor party 72, Liberals 22, and other parties 9. This shows a net gain of 49 for the Conservatives, a net vote of 15 for the Laborites and 36 for the Liberals.

Montreal.—The Molson's Bank is to be taken over by the Bank of Montreal.

Archbishop O'Leary will preside at the laying of the corner stone of St. Joseph's cathedral on Sunday afternoon.

Poems That Live

THE DAY RETURNS

The day returns, my bosom burns,
The blissful day we two did meet!
Tho' winter wild in tempest toil'd,
No'er summer sun was half see sweet.
Than a' the pride that loads the tide,
And crosses o'er the sultry line;
Than kingly robes, than crowns and globes,
Heav'n gave me more—it made thee mine!

While day and night can bring delight,
Or Nature aught of pleasure give,
While joys above my mind can move,
For thee, and thee alone, I live!
When that grim foe of Life below
Comes in between to make us part,
The iron hand that breaks our band,
It breaks my bliss, it breaks my heart!
—Robert Burns.

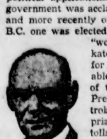
The Passing Show

By J. S. COWPER

"When Poverty comes in at the door, Love flies out of the window." The old proverb has political applications. A year ago a Liberal government was proclaimed in British Columbia, and more recently one in Saskatchewan. The B.C. one was elected on a program calling for "work and wages." The Saskatchewan one merely called for more generous and equitable relief distribution. Both of them failed to count on Premier Bennett who controls federal relief appropriations as well as tariffs, trade treaties and the monetary policy applicable to their provinces.



J. S. Cowper

The "work and wages" program has had to be laid over till a happier day. Both provinces have had their federal relief grants cut down. Municipal grants, in consequence have been cut down in B.C. With no money to increase them the B.C. premier has declined to receive a delegation of municipal heads. They in turn have declared a sort of strike—they threaten to refuse to handle relief altogether.

Out of the conflict of personalities and policies only one gentleman emerges with a smile on his face—but these things are apt to be dangerous. There's a great amount of dry timber lying around. A match applied to it out in the Fraser Valley might start a fire that would run across the prairies. Wise children don't play with matches unless they make sure that the house is well insured.

A few months ago, the west was keen to see if Premier Pattullo would head a western movement for secession or some sort of a new deal. He was assured of the support of his own province if he would place himself at the head of such a movement. Rightly or wrongly, in good times as well as in bad, residents of the coast cities have freely expressed the belief that B.C. made a mistake when it surrendered its fiscal freedom to enter Confederation. Their progress has been sacrificed, they believe, in the interest of the long cross-Canada railway haul and the welfare of eastern manufacturers.

Though B.C. donated that expensive section of the road hewn through the rocky Fraser Canyon from Vancouver to Kamloops, and in addition gave a land grant of 20 miles on each side of the railroad as it winds its way across the province, they must pay more for railway freight and passenger service per mile out there than any other province. Farmers and poultrymen in the coast province, wishful to buy mill feed and feed wheat from Alberta, must pay 41½ cents and 30 cents per hundred pounds respectively for the 640 mile haul to the seaboard. The eastern farmer gets them carried 997 miles for only 25 cents per hundred.

As a suitable site for a manufacturing province, British Columbia has it all over Ontario. It has greater range and variety of raw materials. It has cheap waterpower. It has all-the-year-round open ports facing across the Pacific great untapped markets. But it is denied its full advantage of these by trade and tariff policies, railway rates and monetary control, in the interest of the east. Even the fish that swim in the waters of the Pacific can only be caught subject to regulations drawn up by gentlemen in swivel chairs in an inland town in Ontario—farther away in distance from the Pacific coast than England is from Ottawa.

Last week I talked with the representative of a group of important British ironmasters who years ago were desirous of launching a great iron and steel industry in the Pacific province. They had iron ore properties, options on coking coal mines and fluxes. They even had a 24,000 acre site for their smelters and model town, with a man selected to look after town-planning and welfare work. It meant a potential fight with the U.S. Steel trust for the market on both sides of the Pacific coast. Naturally they would require assurance of protection in the event that the building of the plant on Canadian soil meant a rate war with U.S. steel interests. They made no progress either at Ottawa or even at Victoria. Unseen influences were at work to defeat the project. At present every pound of steel used on the Pacific coast is brought from eastern Canada or from Pittsburgh on the Pittsburgh plus freight basis —with small shipments from Belgium coming in over the Panama Canal.

The British ironmasters still have their properties preserved for them by a holding company but how long it will be before they are enabled to operate in western Canada, nobody knows. The plant at Irondale, Wash., which made the plates for the U.S. cruiser Washington and the U.S. battleship Oregon from B.C. ores, was long ago bought up and junked by the U.S. Steel Corporation.

University of Alberta authorities are concerned over a charge by local clergy that some unnamed members of the faculty by methods not made public undermined the religious beliefs which some of the students held at the time they entered university. Although the incident seems wrapped in vagueness, one can understand the concern that clergy must feel should the imbibing of knowledge at the breasts of their alma mater affect the mental outlook of students in a realm where expert opinion disavows reason and holds we must accept dogma with unreasoning faith.

But if we mustn't use reason in searching for the next life, it seems all the more important that we use every means at hand to make a good thing of this one. Alberta, depending largely on the marketing abroad of its wheat for its material prosperity, is linked in sacrifice with the coast province. It has to sell its product in markets where no preferences can be negotiated lest they interfere with the trade preserve of the eastern manufacturer, and the long train haul.

The madcaps who threw the tea into Boston harbor didn't know they were shaping the ends of a nation that from a poor colony would become Britain's creditor. These B.C. mayors who are talking of giving 60 days notice to quit all responsibility for relief may yet have their names writ large in history.

The Pumpkins of Hallowe'en

By DOCTOR FRANK McCOY

Hallowe'en was originally a day set apart by the Church for the Vigil of the Feast of All Saints, and the original meaning was "Hallowed Evening." Gradually, various superstitions were added and the evening came to be celebrated with tales of mysterious ghosts and first-comers, possibly a survival of the ancient Druidic rites when fires were lit to keep away the ghosts called forth to haunt the earth on that night by Shamen, Lord of Death.

The custom of using lighted lanterns on Hallowe'en is said to have originated from a tale related in Ireland which relates that a miser named Jack was refused entrance to either Heaven or Hades and condemned to wander, looking for a last resting place with a lighted lantern. To imitate him, the children first scooped out turnips and set lighted candles within them, calling them "Jack-O-Lanterns." Later, pumpkins were used.

The demand for pumpkins around Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving has so increased the price that they are now a widely grown crop. The pumpkin is one of the many foods first discovered in America and taken to Europe when the early adventurers returned with samples of the unusual foods grown by the Indians.

Pumpkins vary in size from one to two pounds up to two hundred pounds. The fruity part next to the rind is eaten in many ways, from the pumpkin soups of France and Italy to the pumpkin pie of America. The seeds have long been used as a remedy for tapeworm.

Pumpkins, although a fall crop, may be kept until spring if stored in a cool dry place arti protected from frost.

Quite an industry has recently developed for the purpose of drying and grinding pumpkins into pumpkin flour for the use of bakeries in preparing pumpkin pie. The pies prepared from the flour are equally as well flavored as those prepared from the fresh pumpkin, and have the added advantage that we may now enjoy pumpkin pies the year round. The dried pumpkin is equally as nutritious as the fresh, which is rich in sodium and phosphorus. Here are a few pumpkin recipes:

PUMPKIN AND SPAGHETTI SOUP—Use two cups of chopped pumpkin pulp, a quarter of a pound of spaghetti, and six cups of water. Cover these ingredients, and boil slowly until the spaghetti is cooked, then add one cup of hot milk and half a cup of cream. Add one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, two tablespoonfuls of butter, and seasoning to taste. (This is a starchy soup and should not be used with acid fruits or at a protein meal.)

PUMPKIN AND POTATOES—Two turnips (optional), three cups of chopped pumpkin pulp, four medium sized potatoes peeled. Boil these ingredients in salted water until soft. Drain and mash. Add one-fourth of a cup of condensed milk or cream, one tablespoonful of butter, mix and serve. The juice that is poured off may be used as the base of a soup.

BAKED PUMPKIN, APPLES, RAISINS—Cut off the stem end of a small pumpkin, scoop out seeds, and fill cavity with chopped apples, raisins and minced walnut meats. Mix ingredients with ground Melba toast, moisten with small amount of milk, and place in baking pan. Bake in moderate oven for fifty minutes.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION—Mrs. Paul W. writes: "My husband has just had a seige of boils on the back of his neck. I maintain that they are caused from his blood, but he says that they are infections in the roots of his hair and have nothing to do with the blood. Will you tell us, please?"

ANSWER—You are both right. The boils start from an infection which often enters at the root of a hair. Only a small pimple would result if one's blood were in a clean condition, but, where the blood stream is sluggish with morbid material, a boil may develop and, through general infection, spreads so that there will be a whole crop of boils from the first infection. To stop them from forming, the blood must first be made pure—the soil in which the germs grow must be removed through a cleansing diet and the stimulation of all of the eliminative functions.

Horoscope

By MARY BLAKE

On November 1 a new month starts under some very auspicious conditions, which might justify an optimistic feeling that business as a whole will show a big improvement over preceding months. Married and engaged couples, as well as those seeking the road that leads to matrimony and who have found that they wish to have as a travelling companion, will avoid trouble if they do not try to be evasive if asked a direct question regarding some personal action.

If a woman and November 1 is your birthday, you are not only practical but also capable of planning in such a way that your efforts will bear fruit. A matrimonial career need not interfere with a business or professional one, providing your husband offers no objections.

The child born on November 1, generally when it arrives at high school age, is very advanced for its years and has a very logical mind. If possible this child should be trained for some professional line of work.

If a man and November 1 is your natal day, you should have the ability to direct the actions of others. Sooner or later this ought to be recognized and rapid advancement should follow. Military life, engineering, the pulpit and journalism offer opportunities which should not be ignored.

On This Date

A Day in Canadian History

By FRED WILLIAMS

On this date (October 31) in 1869 came the first indications that half-breeds of the Red River country had determined to resist taking over of that country by the Dominion of Canada. William McDougall, who had been first man in the first House of Commons in 1867 to propose that Canada should buy out the Hudson's Bay Company and annex the Red River country and all the H.B.C. territory, was appointed governor of the North West Territories and despatched to Manitoba, via Chicago, but when he got to the international boundary and essayed to cross at Pembina he was stopped by a barricade erected by half-breeds armed with rifles, who paid no attention to the order of the commander of the military force accompanying McDougall to "remove that blasted fence."

The Metis had been worked up to hostility by stories that Canada would rob them of their lands, by the stupidity of surveyors, who, instead of following the old custom of the district which gave each man a river frontage as is the custom in Quebec, divided up the country into lots of 160 acres and ran their lines across well established boundaries, by Louis Riel, who took advantage of the illness of Governor McTavish (H.B.C.) and of the absence in Rome of Bishop Tache.

They were ready for rebellion, and McDougall's course made the situation worse. Instead of trying conciliation, he made threats. He issued a proclamation as governor, only to find out that he had not been gazetted, that he was merely a nominee, and that Ottawa had decided not to take over the country until the trouble had ended. So McDougall retired to St. Paul, and, as has been said by Prof. W. L. Grant, "all Canada laughed at the poor governor of a territory which did not belong to him, helpless in a foreign city." Sir John Macdonald sent up Donald A. Smith, Colonel de Salaberry and Father Thibault as envoys to treat with Riel, but their efforts were unsuccessful. That is a story for another day.

The Mail Bag

BEDDING, ETC.

Editor Bulletin: The question of bedding and necessities of household articles for many families on relief as mentioned by the Bulletin, certainly needs attention.

I hope your paper will give this question a close and everyday pounding. Our "Big Boys" in the legislature plumb forget about the people back home that put them where they are. Instead of running the show to suit the people, they utilize their position to suit themselves.

While they bought swell cars for themselves, thousands of people are going without the necessities of life; not because none are to be got; not because people won't show effort to make money to buy them with.

Bedding for the unemployed? Oh, no, no money! Beautiful cars for ourselves. Certainly. The others are out of date. What do you think we are, paupers? And when a mother asks for more milk at the relief office for her little one, she is told to bring a certificate from the doctor to the effect that the child needs more milk. Don't speak of bedding. Don't. The government is broke. It's against the law to get married and go on relief. It's against the law to have slave camps. It's against the law to get teeth fixed.

You can't get your naturalization papers while on relief, and don't ask for relief if you are in the country for less than five years. You leave yourself open to deportation.

WHAT OF THE POULTRYMAN?

Editor Bulletin: Upon reading the paper of October 29, I see that all poultry men must have their objections registered before the 15th of November, if they are not in favor of the new poultry marketing act.

If the act goes into effect every one who has 25 hens or over will be compelled to join the scheme—fine.

Now then just what is the government going to give the real poultry producers? I am referring to the man who is raising poultry from day old to maturity. The hens are kept clean and free from disease. They are never allowed to pick their food from the manure pile or pig pen like 90% of them do.

What will this class of producer receive? Again. Will the government set a flat rate on our eggs and will they allow us to sell so much for our feed? Will they force the feed houses on their price? I think not.

Need the farmers run at the following prices: Wheat $1.45 cwt., barley chop $1.45 cwt., shorts $1.30 cwt., meat scrap $2.00 cwt., cod liver oil $1.60 per gallon, alfalfa meal $1.60 ½ cwt., sulphur, salt, and so forth?

Can you feed hens and make a living when paying the above prices and have to compete with the cheap produce from hens that have to gather their eats where they can't.

It looks to me like this. There are a few big poultry men or rather grain growing farmers who have taken up chickens as a side line, since cheap wheat came in, and they are going to try to put their produce along side the little fellow. They want a free market on high quality products.

If our produce is going to be handled by the same companies as are operating today, as I understand these will be agents; what advantage is it to us? None. But how will the above concerns do with 100% business?

It looks as if we are going to create a lot of new jobs for a set of so called poultry experts, who have specialized their learning at some university or farm school, not from practical experience.

The situation seems to be:

1. Poultrymen must be registered after November 15.

2. If there is no cards some place, why be forced before we know what it is all about? Why not give out all details concerning the marketing of our produce?

3. We already have a pool, which is a failure or nearly so.

4. Why pick on the poultry. Is it because it is considered just a side line of the farmers and will not be missed if scrapped. If it successful will it bring every thing under the marketing act. Is that the idea?

JACK BURKE.

Current Comment

MARKETING SCHEMES OPPOSED

Opposition to the two farm marketing schemes now before the public has been promptly and strongly voiced. The producers are evidently not unanimous. Poultry growers of the Winnipeg district, along with some from country points, have formed an association to resist the egg and poultry scheme. Mr. McPhail, president of Manitoba Co-operative Livestock, Limited, says the livestock producers of this province will not accept the scheme affecting their branch of farming.

Each of the two schemes would create a monopoly under pool auspices and deprive every grower of his freedom to sell. Many farmers are evidently not disposed to accept regimentation.

The strength of the opposition to the schemes is a clear indication to the government concerned that they must move cautiously. The British Columbia fruit marketing schemes were made effective without a pool because it had behind it has been made clear that the poultry and livestock schemes are objectionable to a large number of producers. Neither of these schemes should come into force before a complete poll of producers has been taken.—Winnipeg Free Press.

YOUNG GRITS FAVOR CHANGE IN EDUCATION

Vocational Education To Help Youth Aim of Liberal Club

Striking a blow on behalf of the youth of the province, seeking ways and means by which the young men and women can fit themselves to take their places in the economic life of Alberta, members of the Young Men's Liberal club, in regular session at their club room in the McLeod building on Tuesday night endored a resolution advocating renovation and extension of the technical school system.

"Whereas, the future and well-being of this province is primarily dependent on the proper vocational training of its youth, and whereas their education at the present time is not conducted upon such a method as to insure the best training in the line of endeavor they wish to pursue, therefore:

FAVOR NEW PLAN

"Be it resolved that the Young Men's Liberal Club of Edmonton favor the reorganization and extension of the system of technical schools for the training of youth in the various trades."

An amendment seeking establishment of supervised farms was rejected, it being agreed that any such action should be left to the agrarian population.

Several members spoke briefly on topics of interest to the Young Liberals.

PRAISES STEVENS

Armour Ford spoke warmly in defence of the action of Hon. H. H. Stevens in resigning as minister of trade and commerce from the Bennett cabinet. M. Wright declared the Liberals had great opportunities and from its principles would come many much needed reforms. Bruce Massie, Bert Sewell and Low King also spoke.

Arthur Lessard, the president, presided.

SCHOOL BOARD BRIEFS

The whole system of fire drills and other prevention measures, in the Edmonton public schools, is in splendid condition, Fire Marshal J. Booth said in a report to the Edmonton Public School Board, Tuesday night, following his inspection in fire prevention week, October 8 to 13.

An agreement for education of pupils from Sunset school district No. 475 was entered into by the board at a fee of $2,000 for the term January 1 to June 30, 1935. This is a temporary arrangement.

On a motion by A. E. Ottewell, trustee, work of teaching crippled children in their homes will be undertaken, the first report on the work to be made at the end of December.

Notice of motion was made by Trustee F. C. Casselman that standing committees of the new board be reduced from five to two, having four members each instead of the present three. His proposed new committees would be "school management" and "property and finance.

On a motion by Trustee Casselman, application forms for school janitors will now bear the question, "Are you of temperate habits?"

Tuesday night's session being the last meeting of the present board, the usual complimentary adieux were exchanged. Dr. F. W. Crang, as a trustee of many years' standing, expressed regret that Mrs. W. D. Ferris was retiring from her office. Expressions of commendation and gratitude were tendered Trustee S. A. G. Barnes as chairman. Hope was expressed that the two retiring members, Trustee Barnes and Casselman, would be returned to office.

The Debunker

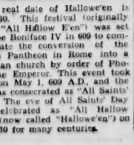
OCTOBER 31 IS NOT HALLOWEEN



The real date of Hallowe'en is April 30. This festival (originally called "All Hallow Even") was set by Pope Boniface IV in 609 to commemorate the conversion of the famous Pantheon in Rome into a Christian church by order of Phocas, the Emperor. This event took place on May 1, 609 A.D., and the day was consecrated as "All Saints' Day." The eve of All Saints' Day was celebrated as "All Hallow Even" (now called "Hallowe'en") on April 30 for many centuries.

Lecture On Radio Will Be Unusual

With an enthusiastic audience of more than fifty members of the Edmonton Little Theatre in attendance, Mr. Frank Holroyd, director, opened a series of fortnightly lectures in the Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, when he spoke on "Play Production and Methods of Presentation."

Displaying charts of the organization, Mr. Holroyd explained the workings of the Little Theatre from the Board of Syndics down. He displayed scale models of sets with lighting to be used for the forthcoming production "Twelfth Night."

It was announced that a special lecture would be given early in the New Year by Miss Shirlla Marryat of CKUA, the University Radio Station, on Radio Plays. Miss Marryat will speak at the station, and give demonstrations with radio apparatus to show its effect on the human voice.

Mrs. J. C. Biggs will speak on "Voice Production" at the next lecture, November 13. It was announced that the membership was growing rapidly.

The Frivolity club met at the home of Miss Jerry Hollingsworth Monday evening when final plans for their annual dance to be held at the Club Academy, November 30, were made. Those present were: Mrs. George Fearn, Miss Ethel Beck, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Rita Coles, Miss Margaret Curtis, Miss Phyllis Edwards, Miss Eileen Higgins, Miss Noreen Holland, Miss Jerry Hollingworth, Miss Edna May, Miss Etta McGregor, Miss Marjorie Sproule and Miss Agnes Watt.

The McDonald Baptist Young People held a very enjoyable hard-time Hallowe'en social Monday evening in the club rooms, where orange and black streamers, pumpkins and lanterns made a very gay setting. Following a sing-song and games a realistic ghost told hair-raising tales, and a Hallowe'en supper was enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Scot Shade, Vera Pryke, Miss Pearl McLaughlin, Miss Phyllis Hunter, Miss Myrtle Evans, Miss Gladys Shales, Miss Grace Hunter, Miss Bessie Yule, Miss Charlotte Walker, Miss Victoria Chostack, Miss Ethel Bischel, Miss Alice Cross, Miss Mabel Skinner, Miss Eva Paulson, Miss Helen Lowe, Miss Nellie Brower, Mr. Douglas McIntyre, Mr. Chris. Stripes May Be Flattering

Black satin with a hairline stripe is used to fashion this stunning early winter dress with white faille collar and flattering bow tie. With it is worn a high-crowned black felt hat and perforated bluskin oxfords.

Campfire Draws Gay Voyageurs

The pages of history turned back several hundred years last Friday night as a party of young French-Canadians, descendants of Canada's first white settlers, left their motor cars behind and, following in the footsteps of their forbears, took to canoes for an outing.

Led by Mr. Roland "Pat" Patenaude, and with soft, mellow moonlight casting a silvery sheen across the rippled surface of the Saskatchewan and causing weird and grotesque shadows to appear on the rough, wooded cutbanks, the party, numbering 25, was transported across the river. Lost Canyon, home of the Voyageur Canoe club, of which organization Mr. Patenaude is a member, was their destination, and on arrival a huge campfire in a central spot was found awaiting them.

Following an inspection of the various camps in the canyon, during the course of which they were introduced into the mysteries of camp life as practised by the present-day "voyageurs," the party gathered around the fire. In a setting not unlike that in which the songs of old Quebec had their origin rollicking French Canadian folk-songs, plentifully interspersed with turns of a more modern day, were indulged in.

Around the camp fire were: Mr. and Mrs. Laurier Picard, Mrs. G. Lambert, the Misses Muriel McKinnon, Madeleine Jenvrin, Kathleen McKay, Marjory Keegan, Henriette Kantor, Gertrude Amyot, Bevelobe Bastide, Frances de Savoy, Marie Boileau, Alice Lemieux, Gabriel Mercier, Bernadette Lachance, Charlotte Bernier.

Messrs. Paul E. Poirier, Jacques Jenvrin, Ambrose O'Neil, Phip Villeneuve, "Mag" Pepin, Chas. Faure, Rene Pepin, Paul Hervieux, Leo Forest and J. R. "Pat" Patenaude.

Thanks were tendered Howard Wilson, president, Beri Wilson and Don Copeman, of the "Voyageurs," who assisted in transporting the party across the river, and joined in the festivities around the fire.

Debutantes Rouse Ire Of Models

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. — A bevy of professional models—one blonde, one red-head and five brunettes—picketed a society fashion show Sunday in the feud between professional and "semi-pro" or society mannequins.

A restaurant in the fashionable east 50's had been sold out to a group of the socially elite that takes over the place Sunday afternoons at the cocktail hour on a subscription basis. For Sunday's entertainment they had brought in society women to act as mannequins in a fashion show without compensation. The models, the professional ones, were on hand early under the militant leadership of Miss Gertrude L. Mayer. The day was chilly.

"We wouldn't mind if it were a charity affair," Miss Mayer said. "Our own models would work without compensation for charity, but the debutantes model because they consider it a lark, and our own girls are therefore deprived of work. Besides, they don't know how to do it."

TO WINNIPEG

Mrs. R. T. Thompson, of Edmonton, is a visitor in Calgary en route to Winnipeg, where she will be the guest of her son, Mr. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Thompson.

Japan imports shiploads of tin cans from America and converts the cans into steel products through cheap labor in her factories.

Dismissal Of Women Is No Help

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Dismissal of women workers would not in any way relieve or solve the unemployment problem, Ida Smith, president, asserted last night at an executive meeting of the Ottawa Business Women's Liberal Club.

"And may I add that in the event of such a plan, or policy, being adopted by our country and being put into practice, the women of Canada would doubless unite in a common effort to sponsor a party of their own," she declared. She urged the members of the club to co-operate with a view to improving the wage scale of women workers in Canada. Men and women should receive the same rate of wages for similar work.

Miss Smith said it had been suggested recently in different parts of Canada that if women were to retire from the field of commerce and industry, the problem of employment would be practically solved.

"Apart from the unfairness of such a statement, I cannot see how any intelligent person could imagine that such a scheme would be a solution," commented Miss Smith "Obviously, it would mean that men would be employed and would receive the same rate of wages for similar work.

"While there would always be men who believed "that women's place is in the home," added Miss Smith, "it is rather too late in the day to suggest turning the clock of progress back to the days of our grandmothers." Women were better qualified to do much of the work which they were now undertaking than men, she insisted.

W.C.T.U. DISAPPROVES OF MILITARY TRAINING

The Victoria W.C.T.U. met at the home of Mrs. Greddie, 10020 87 Ave., recently with Mrs. M. L. Wright, the newly elected president, presiding. Mrs. Knight gave a talk on the Peace and the need for the abolishment of military training for the youth of today.

Encouraging reports from the convention, recently held in Calgary were given by the delegates Mrs. C. Murray and Mrs. Greddie. Mrs. Gilchrist led in the devotional service. It was decided that a tea should be arranged for the November meeting.

Illegitimate Children Are Aided

Children in the old country, handicapped physically or mentally defective, are given every chance by government, municipal and voluntary support to make their way in the world.

Dame Janet Campbell, D.B.E. M.D., of London, England, made clear to a large audience who heard her speak at a meeting sponsored by the Local Council of Women, in the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday afternoon. The audience was an especially representative one, composed of men and women interested in club life, social service and education. To them, Dame Janet's discussion of child treatment in England was most instructive.

Dealing first with the case of the illegitimate child, Dame Janet told that special homes for these mothers are provided, and that no benefit of maternity service is denied them. The work, here, is carried on by voluntary organizations which bring the human atmosphere to their service and give both mother and baby the best chance to build up life. The mother is persuaded, when possible, to keep the infant with her. Otherwise it is boarded out under careful supervision.

FOR ILLEGITIMATES

Children's homes in the cities are much more satisfactory than those in the country for supervision is better. Dame Janet told briefly of a place in France where illegitimate children are cared for. There the birth rate is so low that every life is precious, and this place in itself is like a miniature city with an admitting office, centre of observation, and supervision of the children placed in homes.

Mental defectives and physically handicapped children receive special attention. The mentally deficient children are examined in detail and then placed in special schools where they are trained to do manual work rather than literary work. They are kept until they are 16 and those of high grade are trained to a trade which will give them future occupation.

Transportation is arranged for the crippled children to take them to special schools, where they remain for the day and receive their noon meal. These children too, are especially trained for the lines in which they show most adaptability.

Hospital clinics for children suffering from active diseases and unable to attend day schools are provided. Dental education is a part of treatment. Dame Janet said, for it keeps them occupied, patient and happy.

For children in which bad tonsils, adenoids, ear and eye troubles are detected, the schools the parents receive medical advice and, when they are able, they assist in payment for their treatment.

For these special schools the board of education pays half the cost of education while the local educational authorities bear the remainder of the expense.

Mrs. Will J. Ross presided at the meeting, and Dr. R. B. Jenkins moved a vote of thanks to Dame Janet.

ST. STEPHEN'S W.A. HONOR MRS. PIRIE

Mrs. A. P. Pirie was honored by the Women's Association of St. Stephen's church at their meeting held on Thursday afternoon, when Rt. Rev. A. E. Burgett, Bishop of Edmonton, presented a life membership pin to her on behalf of the association. Mrs. Pirie graciously acknowledged, both the membership and the pretty gold pin representing the honor.

To Mrs. J. C. Matthews, wife of the rector, who celebrated her birthday that day, a silver sandwich set was presented. His Lordship again made the presentation. Mrs. C. Shaw was the donor of the birthday cake.

Guests of honor were His Lordship the Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Matthews, Mrs. F. C. Cornish, and Mrs. Pirie. Mr. Sydney Gee and Mrs. James Findlay presided at tea, and on the committee were Mrs. H. Hunt and Mrs. C. Shaw.

Mix Best Cough Remedy At Home. Easy! Big Saving!

Beats Them All For Quick, Lasting Relief.

If you want the best remedy for severe coughs, mix it at home. Once tried, you'll never use any other kind, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed. Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its healing effect on throat and bronchial membranes.

Put the Pinex into a 16 oz. bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make 16 ozs. of really better medicine than you could buy ready-made for four times the money. It never spoils, and tastes fine.

And for quick, lasting relief, it has no equal. You can feel it penetrating the air passages in a way that seems instantly to soothe. It loosens the phlegm, allays, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes, makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

TWO SECONDS
to be sure of her Hair

Less than a minute—less than a penny—to be sure of your hair all day long! To know it's clean, and looks clean. To know it will stay as you arranged it. And to know you have no dandruff.

That's what moistening your comb with a few drops of Danderine will do. And no amount of dry-combing will ever do. Nearly all hair needs the help that Danderine gives it. A dash of Danderine morning and night when you comb it, makes an amazing difference in the way any hair looks all the time!

When you've washed your hair, a little Danderine will keep it from going helter-skelter. When you pay a dollar for a wave, Danderine will help you keep it. It isn't sticky dressing, or an oily tonic, and it doesn't leave a telltale odor. Its fresh fragrance is gone so quickly after applying—but not that very marvelous effect of freshness and cleanliness!

With all the care a woman gives her hair, it is a pity to omit this last touch that means so much. It is no trouble. Yet you can hardly believe anything so mild and delightful as Danderine could bring such a change in the condition and appearance of hair and scalp. Just try it. You can buy Danderine at any drug store for thirty-five cents; larger sizes for 60c and $1.00.

Jack Frost has nipped the leaves from the trees, and now his icy breath coats the rivers and lakes, so that enthusiasts of winter sports are looking forward to skating and skiing. Glenora rink has been flooded and the official opening is anticipated for an early date. At a meeting of club members held on Tuesday evening a committee to complete plans for the season's skating at Glenora rink was appointed.

Mr. John Johnson of Calgary will arrive in Edmonton shortly and has been engaged as the club professional. On the committee are Mr. H. M. Lane, Mr. C. H. Chapman, Mr. R. Driscoll, Mr. Allan Graves, Mr. H. P. Emery, Mrs. Jack Fife, Mrs. E. G. A. Smart, Mrs. Maurice Burbidge, Mrs. J. M. Emery, Mrs. Jack Starky.

Marking a very charming climax to her three-day stay in Edmonton, a reception was given in honor of Dame Janet Campbell, D.B.E., M.D., M.S., of London, England, by her hostess, Dr. Mildred Newell, at her residence in Connaught Drive on Tuesday evening.

Miss Eunice Dyke, R.N., of Ottawa, who received with Dame Janet and Mrs. Newell, was in flowered chiffon.

Speaking informally on the great work of the Queen's Nurses (which correspond to the Canadian Victorian Order) and telling much of midwifery and district nursing in England, Dame Janet gave an interesting picture of the English nursing situation.

Mrs. F. R. Nicholls and Miss Blanche Enstrom poured tea and coffee at a supper table centred with yellow baby mums.

Besides Edmonton public health nurses and women students in medicine at the University, there were included among the guests: Mrs. R. C. Wallace, Mrs. M. R. Bow, Mrs. A. C. Rankin, Mrs. R. C. Procter, Lady Rodney, Miss Patrick, Miss Sybil Primrose, Mrs. H. M. Vango, Mrs. E. C. Pardee, Mrs. J. Macgregor Smith, Captain Scott, Mrs. Mary A. NEW YORK LADYWEAR JASPER AVE.

WRITE OR WIRE IF YOU CAN'T SPEAK

Dear Miss Dix—I am a young man very much in love with a girl who, I think, likes me, but I stammer when nervous and never find myself able to propose. Do you think I would be successful if I wrote her a letter telling her of my affection and asking her to marry me? UNFORTUNATE.

Dorothy Dix

Answer:

Certainly I do. If the girl loves you and wants you, she will say "yes," no matter how you pop the question to her. And, if she doesn't care for you, she would say "no," no matter if you made love like John Barrymore.

Probably every girl, if given her choice, would prefer to have a man pop the question in person, for no woman wants a man to make love to her with his mouth a hundred miles off or even around the corner, but, still and all, there is a lot to be said for the written proposal. It is definite and concrete and actionable, and shows that a man means business.

So if you are timid and get stage fright and back away whenever you reach the critical moment, or when a proposal is due, or if you stammer so that you bungle a sentimental moment, don't try to say it. Write it. Or even telegraph it. Bona fide proposals are not so common in these days that girls turn them down because they didn't come wrapped up in quite so much of the pink chiffons of romance as they would have liked to have.

Anyway, your girl won't be the first girl who has been disappointed in not having a man pop the question to her in the way she has dreamed of ever since she was in pigtails. Every woman looks forward to that great moment of her life when the man she loves asks her to be his wife. She has thought he would do it beautifully, romantically, that he would select some appropriate setting, a still moonlight night with the wind sighing in the trees and the strains of music coming softly from far away. Or something like that.

Then he would whisper impassioned vows in her ears and do a caveman stunt by clutching her madly to his breast and raining burning kisses on her lips. Clark Gable stuff, you know. And it would all be something so wonderful and marvelous that she would still thrill to the memory of it when she told her great-grandchildren about it fifty years later.

But does it happen that way? I'm telling you.

The poor dub of a man as likely as not pops the question when they are crossing the street and dodging automobiles or over roast beef and mashed potatoes in a restaurant with three waiters in earshot. Instead of using lovely Booth Tarkington language he says: "Say, Mary, you and I hit it off pretty well together. How would you like to tie up for keeps?" Or he tells her that he has been looking at some new flats or bungalows with built-in washtubs and indirect lighting, and how would she like to set up housekeeping in one of them with him?

And if the poor girl, clutching at the tail feathers of her vanishing dream and still trying to infuse a little romance into the occasion, hesitates and murmurs something about this being so sudden and she didn't know he felt that way about her and she will have to look into her own heart, he doesn't plead with her or threaten to commit suicide if she says "no." He responds briskly and cheerfully: "O. K. Think it over and phone me," precisely as if he were offering her an option on a corner lot in the suburbs instead of a chance at Paradise. DOROTHY DIX.

Individual Baking Dishes Aid Dining

By MARY E. DAGUE

The next time anybody wants to give you a present and asks you to choose it, lay aside all bashfullness and make it individual baking dishes, if you haven't any. Then see what fun you will have serving casserole dishes to the home-folks and company.

Sister Mary

There's no better luncheon dish that I know anything about than salmon done in a ramekin and served plain or with a celery sauce, if you like celery, accompanied also by the noodle ring. Also, have you ever tried baking macaroni and onion together? If not, begin now.

Here's what you need for the ramekin of salmon:

Three tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, ½ teaspon salt, dash of cayenne, 2 cups flaked salmon, ½ teaspoon minced parsley, 1 cup milk, ½ cup fine bread crumbs, buttered.

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, salt, cayenne, salmon, parsley and milk. Turn into greased ramekin or custard cups. Cover with crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 35 minutes, or until done. Garnish with or without celery sauce. Serves 6.

As a base for the celery sauce take 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, and a dash of white pepper.

Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour and stir to a smooth paste. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly, and continue cooking and stirring until thickened. Season with salt and pepper. This makes one cup white sauce of medium thickness. For a thinner sauce use 1½ tablespoons flour. For celery sauce, add ½ cup cooked, diced celery and season to taste. Makes about 1¼ cups sauce.

To make the spaghetti and onion dish, parboil your spaghetti (or macaroni) as usual. Then alternate layers of thinly sliced onions and the macaroni or spaghetti in a well buttered baking dish. A thin white sauce is poured over the mixture and the dish is baked 45 minutes in a moderate oven.

For the noodle ring, you need 2 cups noodles, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, ½ cup grated cheese, 2 eggs, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper.

Cook noodles in boiling salted water for 10 minutes. Drain. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Add cheese and cook until melted. Remove from fire and add noodles and well beaten yolks of eggs. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a well buttered mold and bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Sliced peaches, cereal, cream, baked French toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Salmon in ramekins with noodle ring, tomato and celery salad, Boston brown bread, apple sauce, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER: Rolled and stuffed mutton shoulder, rice croquettes with currant jelly, Boston head lettuce and cucumber salad, elderberry pie, milk, coffee.

A BEDTIME STORY

Story by HAL COCHRAN — Pictures by GEORGE SCARBO

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Poor Scouty, splashing in the stream, exclaimed, "Now, who would ever dream that the old alligator would pull such a trick as this?

"When he ran fast and wouldn't stop, I knew that we would take a flop. However, we're not hurt, and he's a friend we will not miss."

"That's true," said Coppy, "but I'm wet. I'm going to catch a cold, I'll bet, unless we find some way to build a fire and dry our clothes."

Then Scouty said, "Aw, let's just run around a bit, out in the sun. We're lucky that we were not dicked completely, goodness knows."

. . . .

So, 'round they ran for quite a while, and then brave Scouty, with a smile, cried, "Hey, here come the others. They're excited as can be."

"I s'pose, since we rode out of sight, they've wondered if we were all right." Then to the bunch he shouted, "We are safe, as you can see."

"Oh, my," sighed Goldy. "We were scared. Of course, we wondered how you fared." Then Coppy told the story of the alligator's dive.

"I think that was a real mean trick," snapped Dotty. "After this we'll pick no 'gator friends. I guess that you are lucky you're alive."

"Well, let's forget it," Scouty said. "I see a strange place, just ahead. Look through the trees! You'll see some towers standing out real clear."

They rushed up to invstigate, and found a door and great big gate. Wee Scouty knocked and then said, "I guess no one's living here."

"Well," little Coppy loudly cried, "I'd like to look around, inside. I'm going to climb that ladder that is leaning 'gainst the wall.

"It leads up to a window. Gee, who's game, right now, to follow me?" "I am," wee Duncy shouted. "Be real careful, and don't fall."

(The Tinies have a heap of fun in the castle in the next story.)

ELECTRONIC MEDICINE

Or Ultra Short Wave Treatment.

IS MOST SUCCESSFUL IN THE TREATING OF CANCER, TUBERCULOSIS, ARTHRITIS, LUNG ABSCESSES, PLEURISY, CHRONIC CONDITIONS FOLLOWING PNUEMONIA, ALL TYPES OF INTERNAL INFECTIONS, PAINS OF VARIOUS KINDS ARE SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY THIS INSTRUMENT.

Dr. Mather Thomson, F.R.C.P., London, Consulting Physician for Diseases of the Heart, said of Electronic Medicine, "I sought every possible means to determine whether Abrams' methods were consistent inasmuch as they mean a complete revolution of our methods of treatment. I went to San Francisco and I have no reason to regret my trip. All is true. Abrams is fifty years ahead of his time."

A Testimonial

Sept. 20, 1934.

Dear Sirs:

My daughter was taken ill and after being treated for 1½ years by a few prominent medical men in the city, they decided she was in an advance stage of tuberculosis of intestines and hip bones and could do nothing to help her, so in despair we thought of the osteopathic physician, Dr. Ghostley. He advised us to try the Electronic treatments which was little heard of at the time. We are very pleased to say we took his advice and went to San Francisco to obtain this treatment. In two weeks time the girl could play and enjoy life like a normal child. It is 14 years since she had the treatments and is still in the best of health.

Yours truly,
MRS. H. M. SILLS,

Soldiers Hear Fine Singing

"Gypsy Life," by Shumann, and "Serenade," by Shubert, were beautifully sung by an octet from St Joseph's cathedral, for the entertainment of the soldier patients in the Red Cross hut on Tuesday evening. Rev. Geo. Green was the conductor and the program of music was arranged by Madame Morier. Vocal solos sung by Mme. J. Trembleau, Mrs. W. Kenealy, Miss Charlotte Barry, Mr. J. L. Morin and Mr. A. Morin were most delightful, and Miss Myrosia Kupchenko played violin selections. The accompanist was Mrs. B. Y. Pepin Olsen. Members of the octet are Mrs. W. Kenealy, Mrs. Herbert Conroy, Mrs. J. Woodward, Miss Jean Doherty, Mr. H. Knowles, Mr. G. Thumouth, Mr. B. Cartmell, Mr. S. Meikle.

Miss Chris MacLeod, of Vancouver, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Campbell, "Argyll," for the past two weeks, is leaving for Calgary on Wednesday prior to her return to the coast city. Miss MacLeod is on the staff of the General Hospital at Vancouver, and during her stay in Edmonton many delightful affairs have been held in her honor.

On the occasion of her twenty-first birthday, Miss Hilda Lackman was the guest of honor at a dinner party arranged in the Corona hotel by members of the Kill Kair Klub Monday evening. Later the party repaired to the home of Mrs. Bert MacIndoe, the Kensington apartments. Members present were Mrs. Gordon Chambers, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Vera Heller, Louise Field, Helen Cryderman, Blanche Paddock, Lillian Davies, Edna Wilson and Hilda Larkman.

* * *

A very festive kitchen shower took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Crockett, 11131 97 street, who kindly opened their home for the occasion in honor of Miss Gertrude Young, bride-elect of this month. The tea table centred with a miniature bride and a silver basket filled with white astors, and decorated with streamers, was very attractive. Tall green tapers in silver holders were also used. The gifts were presented to the guest of honor in a huge, sparkling snowball. Mrs. Watson poured tea and Mrs. Gibbons coffee and Miss Violet Hill cut ices. Mrs. E. Crockett, Jr., assisted. Those present were Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Worksued. The gifts were presented to man, Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Gillanders, Mrs. R. Lawrence, Mrs. M. Gibbons, Mrs. Hazel Hill, Mrs. Ella Flintoff, Mrs. Elverude, Mrs. McNeilly, Misses Nancy McNabb, Mary Millar, Gladys Smith, Annie Wethering Law, May Bonsalt, Helen Ward, Rachael McKone, Bessie Gordon, Kettie Morrison, Jessie Smith, Jessie Horswell, Hilda Clark, Alice Cook, Hetty Bell, Jeanne Wilson, Marie Clausen, Florence King, Alice Gudmundsen, Crissie Swan, Nan Stott, Violet Hill and Mrs. E. Crockett, junior.

TO CLEAN CUT GLASS

Cut glass must be handled with a certain amount of care. Never subject it to sudden changes of temperature. Wash it in tepid water to which a little ammonia has been added. Then dry it with a Turkish towel. In this way all crevices will be easily reached. The ammonia will clean every crack and the towel will polish it.

Inland Waterway Opening Is Made Real Ceremony

HATTON, Warwickshire, Oct. 31.—A new boost was given inland waterways in England here Tuesday when the Duke of Kent opened the new locks on the Grand Union Canal between London and Birmingham.

The ceremony marked the completion of a $5,000,000 improvement which began in May, 1931.

The canal now will accommodate boats with a 12½ foot beam and a draft of 4½ feet throughout the entire system.

Exports Grow

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Export clearances of wheat for the week ended Oct. 26 amounted to 3,411,219 bushels, an increase of more than 700,000 bushels as compared with the previous week when export clearances amounted to 3,678,705 bushels, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported Tuesday.

Stevens Busy In New Home

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Hon. H. H. Stevens has taken quarters in the House of Commons in one of the large private members' rooms on the main floor allotted to former ministers of the crown.

On resigning as minister of trade and commerce, he moved from his more commodious ministerial offices in the west block, and Tuesday Mr. Stevens located himself in the parliament buildings.

What New York Is Wearing

—By Helen Williams

3425

A smart trim and a clever tailoring detail is given by the buttons from neck to hem.

Another point! You'll appreciate this model for you won't find it strenuous sewing. It cuts in one from shoulder to hem. No waistline joins, which is shaped by pin inverted tuck.

Soft angora finished woolen in green and brown mixture, with brown buttons and self-fabric belt, is pictured.

In heavy canton or in velveteen, it's quite as smart looking.

Style No. 3425 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust. Size 16 requires 3¾ yards of 39-inch material.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of FIFTEEN cents (15c) in coins, carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE wanted.

Our LATEST FASHION BOOK will be sent upon receipt of FIFTEEN cents in coins. Address all mail orders to Pattern Department, Edmonton Bulletin.

Subscribers must allow 14 days for delivery.

EDMONTON

Premier City of the West—Capital of the Province of Alberta—Gateway to Peace River Country—Great Bear Mining Area!

30% Increase In Agricultural Prices Increase Farm Wealth

It is estimated that well over $50,000,000 of new money will be circulated in the Edmonton Trading area in the 1934 crop "pay-off."

Wheat, Hogs, Dairying, Beets, Coal, Meat Packing, Lumbering, and local Manufacturing with growing development in the Northern Trading are all contributing factors to this unusual gain in wealth.

THE MUNICIPAL AIRPORT

Edmonton, the Centre of Northern Development

Edmonton is ideal in its situation in the north . . . a great northern metropolis with rich mixed farming lands and mineral deposits even within the city limits. Natural gas is one of the greatest features of home and industrial essentials. Edmonton is so located that it is the ideal base for all lines to the rich north lands.

EDMONTON INDUSTRIES

are setting new records for 1934. . . . Production of the 200 manufacturing firms is well over last year's figures. These firms employ 4,500 employees with an annual payroll of well over four and a quarter million dollars. Coal mining output also shows a substantial increase.

All public utility institutions are steadily increasing in revenue. The telephone system shows an increase of 317 residence and business phones over last year. Gas and electric light consumption well over last year.

Edmonton Airport Is World-Famed

Edmonton has one of the finest airports in the Dominion of Canada, and the city has already won a name for itself as an aviation centre. The city is on the route of round-the-world flights, both Post and Gatty and other aviators having made use of it in their sensational flights.

The airport is municipally owned and operated and has as an adjunct one of the largest Aero clubs in Canada. The hangar is commodious, occupying 10,000 square feet.

D. K. KNOTT, Mayor. D. MITCHELL, Commissioner.

What's What

We have been told that any member of our class may expect a surprise party this Hallowe'en. How should we be ready for it? Will everyone be in the secret, except the one to be surprised?

SEVENTEEN.

Answer—Your mother and you should have extra supplies ready for an emergency, sandwich bread, assorted fillings, cake, candy and the traditional Hallowe'en cider. If you are not notified otherwise by Monday, too many guests that your home has been chosen by your classmates. Have a plank ready for yourself in case, also draperies and other materials of which impromptu costumes can be fashioned. Have dance records selected in advance for the occasion.

What do you think is the best shade of rouge and lipstick for a medium blonde? What are the leading styles and colors for the coming Winter? (Sorry, I see the paper only occasionally.) G.A.

Answer—Every now and then correspondents must be reminded that this is the etiquette section. Questions concerning styles and cosmetics should be addressed to the Fashion and Beauty Columns. Even in this department the same answers cannot be given repeatedly without becoming monotonous to other readers. The only way to be sure of securing timely information is to be a daily reader. Occasional readers too often miss the exact points they are seeking.

Anna's Perfect Lips Kept Smooth and Soft

By GLADYS GLAD
"America's Most Famous Beauty"

That famous Russian actress, Anna Sten, who recently discarded the "Vana" coiffure she made so popular in favor of the more regal charm of corner braids, has a pair of perfectly formed lips. La Sten makes it a practice always to use a good lubricant on her lips during the wintertime. For she believes that no matter how perfect the lips are in shape and size, they cannot be considered truly beautiful unless they are also of satin smoothness.

It's certainly true that lips must be kept soft and smooth at all times. If they are to appear alluringly lovely and of the kissable variety. That means, of course, that the lips must always be given sufficient care to keep them smooth and supple. And it is particularly during the approaching winter season that lip care becomes essential. For the cold winds dry and chap the lips, and make them rough and unsightly.

If the lips are to be kept soft and smooth during the cold weather, the skin must be given plenty of lubrication. Before retiring at night a generous coating of campher ice, cold cream or lanolin should be smoothed over the lips. This coating should be permitted to remain on overnight. And during the daytime a greasy lipstick should be used. A dry lipstick only tends to dry the lips all the more. So if you really must use a dry lipstick, at least apply a basic coating of coco butter or some other good, protective lubricant under your lipstick, so that the frosty air won't wreak havoc with your lips.

I have found that a half and half mixture of glycerine and rosewater also comprises an excellent remedy for chapped lips. If the lips become sore and chapped, a generous quantity of this lotion should be smoothed over them and permitted to remain on all night. And the next morning all the loose, chapped bits of skin can be easily removed simply by gently rubbing the lips with a soft cloth or bit of cleansing tissue. The rosewater and glycerine lotion may also be used sparingly on the lips under one's lipstick, if desired. This will help to prevent any chapping, and will tend to keep the lips soft, smooth and alluring.

Your Children

By Olive Roberts Barton

Recently I listened to a gentleman who explained with enthusiasm the effect of color on children, the psychology of soothing shades and the gradual raising of tone in accordance with age.

Likewise I observed the art exhibit, children's crayons and paintings showing how small folk uncrudded and untrained can express themselves in color. This, I'll say, was marvelous.

O. R. Barton

Recently I was treated to an exhibition of baby trousseaus and nursery furnishings and pastels that would grace a morning in heaven. Soft color seems so necessary to a baby's nurture and happiness.

And yesterday I read what an authority had to say about special walls, rug designs and specially-made blinds, as well as sectional furniture that could be added to each birthday, and so on.

All of which makes people a bit more conscious of the places in which little people sleep, play and live.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

But let those of us who cannot manage it that way dry our tears. The vast majority are doing pretty well to have good roof and a milk bottle on the doorstep, coal in the cellar and shoes on the runarounds. If bedclothes and floors are clean and the walls wiped down, many mothers feel they have done their utmost, and they have.

As for color—yes, I'll grant that its peculiar combinations are delightful in a child's eyes. A baby in a red room might react unfavorably to the inevitable glare. And a four-year-old probably would get bored and weary in an eternally gray room with drab toys. However, children are outdoors a lot except in unfortunate districts there is a go t bit of color in the world, a meat any variety you like from the sof. pas e's of the sky to the red cars on the street and the yellow dahlias in a neighbor's yard.

NOW ABOUT LAST GENERATION?

We of the old guard who slept in cradles beside the "big" bed, and grew up surrounded by heavy Nottingham lace curtains, our feet pattering over brown Brussels carpets and enveloped by wall papers of large gilt designs, managed to wangle along some way. All the pinks and blues we had were probably a satin bow somewhere that was yanked off after the second washing and the emotional excitement of the new baby was over.

We have also managed, I think not only to retain our appreciation of color, but some of us have gone on to the connoisseur class and flatter ourselves that we know a lovely thing when we see it. Perhaps this is the very reason, because we weren't weary of "tones." Or perhaps the very awfulness of our conglomerate houses was a lesson to us.

Actually, I am sure the color promoters are doing needed pioneer work, and it is often as cheap to get the beautiful as the ugly. But lest any mother look over the plain little crib and monkish-plain cubicle with discouragement and misgivings because there are no cloud effects, let her sleep well. Her baby will be neither color blind nor a moron. He might even grow up to be a specialist on home furnishings.

Royal Daughter

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 31. A daughter was born last night to Princess Sybilla, wife of Prince Gustaf Adolf, eldest son of the Swedish Crown Prince, inaugurating the fourth generation in the Swedish royal family.

Quebec Envoy To Visit West

QUEBEC, Oct. 31.—Hon. Irenee Vautrin, Quebec minister of colonization, will leave Quebec today for Winnipeg to begin a tour of western provinces. The minister of colonization intends to study the system used in the west for placing colonists and farmers on the land.

Announcement of his intention to leave for the prairies was made last night upon Mr. Vautrin's return from Ottawa, where he attempted to interest Dominion authorities in the colonization plans adopted at the recent colonization congress here. He did not reveal the result of his visit beyond saying he talked with Hon. W. A. Gordon, minister of labor, regarding unemployment relief.

GIVE WARNING OF WRECKING HIGH BRIDGE

Police, C.P.R., Press Informed of Collapse by Astrological Body

At 6:33 p.m. Edmonton time Thursday, the city is due to an awesome shock, for such is the hour set by the "Astrological Research Institute" (headquarters in Queens hotel) for the collapse of the High Level Bridge.

In his batch of morning mail Wednesday Police Chief A. G. Shute received a letter from W. Mueller an officer in the society in which was contained the warning. The missive reads: "With reference to my information to the city council about the coming epidemic and the crashing of the High Level Bridge, it will interest you to know that painstaking investigation and calculations in this regard are ending with the fact that the bridge will be destroyed on Thursday, November 1, 1934, at 6:33 p.m., true Edmonton time. Similar letters are being sent the C.P.R. and the papers of this city."

The letter to The Bulletin reads as follows:

"With reference to my information given to the City-council regarding the coming Epidemic it will interest you to hear that the Highlevel-bridge which were mentioned also will be destroyed on Thursday, the 1st of November 1934, 6:33 p.m. true Edmonton-time. C.P.R. and Police are informed.

Yours very truly,
W. Mueller."

FREE CAR RIDES ON JOHNSTONE WALKER STORE

Celebrating their 48th anniversary, just two years short of their golden anniversary, Johnstone Walker, Limited, pioneer Edmonton department store, is launching a mammoth sale Thursday. In conjunction with the anniversary sale celebrations, the store is chartering the entire Edmonton street railway for one hour Thursday, from 9 to 10 a.m. During this hour all Edmonton will ride free with the compliments of Johnstone Walker.

Many local and eastern manufacturers have made the store special price concessions in appreciation of long years of patronage and Johnstone Walker is passing the savings on to its thousands of customers.

Today's full-page advertisement appearing in Edmonton's own newspaper, presents only a very small part of the values being featured in the three-day sale, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 1, 2 and 3.

Johnstone Walker, Limited, is Edmonton's own store, having been established in 1886, a year or so later than Edmonton's own daily newspaper.

2 CITY RADIO STATIONS NOW CHANGE HANDS

Taylor and Pearson Lease CJCA—Rice Purchases Station CFTP

A deal involving changes in the operating control of Edmonton's radio stations was announced Wednesday morning by J. M. Taylor, of Taylor and Pearson Company. The Taylor-Pearson station, CFTP, has been sold to G. R. A. Rice, manager of the Journal radio station while the Journal station, CJCA, will be taken over by the Taylor-Pearson Company. The changes will become effective on November 1.

Mr. Taylor stated this morning it was the intention of the company to install a 1,000 watt transmitter in CJCA and that the installation would be completed before the end of the year. The necessary equipment has been ordered, but it will be several weeks before the manufacturers can make delivery.

Discontinuance of ferry service on the rivers of the province was announced on Wednesday by the public works department. It is noted that several ferries have ceased to operate owing to ice conditions, not having been able to give service for some time. All ferry service will be discontinued after this week. There were 57 ferries operating.

Gleaned From Today's News

The Men's Club of Metropolitan church will meet in the church basement at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

M. E. Geissinger, M.D., L.M.C.C. formerly connected with the University of Alberta hospital, has left to reside in Daysland.

The Edmonton Stamp Collectors Club will meet at the Corona hotel, Thursday, November 1, at 8 p.m. A short talk on errors will be given by G. W. Linke.

Approximately 600 acres of land have been utilized this year in producing vegetables for use of the new Tabor canning factory, according to figures compiled by Colin G. Groff, provincial publicity commissioner. The entire plant output has been disposed of.

On October 27 there were 8,757 unplaced male applicants for work at the various offices of the Employment Service of Canada while there were, in addition, 733 women registered. During the week there were 782 men placed in position and 100 women.

McKechnie, 63-year-old millwright who fell 13 feet down a shaft in the government elevator Monday afternoon, will open before Coroner Dr. E. A. Braithwaite and a jury in the Andrews Brothers' funeral hall at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday. Four witnesses will be called.

BANK EXECUTIVE VISITING CITY

B. P. Alley of Toronto, assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, accompanied by J. B. Corbett, district superintendent, is registered at the Macdonald hotel. The executives are here on a routine inspection trip, "keeping acquainted with the west."

Mr. Alley lived in the west for the first 23 years of his banking career, and in 1903 came to Edmonton as accountant for the Bank of Commerce here. At that time the population of the community was approximately 37,000, and many incidents connected with his sojourn were recounted in an interview. Evidences of gradual recovery up-trend were noted by Mr. Alley as he travelled westward on this trip, he said.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Dame Janet Campbell says that women are needed in medicine so The Bulletin's Inquiring Reporter decided to find out some reactions to women doctors.

"Do you feel as much confidence in women doctors as men?" was the question asked.

MATRON, Edmonton Creche Society: "Certainly, if they have the proper training. I believe that a woman doctor can prove herself quite as capable as any man."

MISS INGRAM, 10105 Macdonald Drive: "No I haven't. I don't think that women have been in the field long enough and in addition to that women have a tendency to look up to men. Women are not as steady as men and it is difficult to place the same confidence in them as one does in a man."

* * *

MRS. MARY FINLAY, Matron, Beulah Home: "We have quite as much confidence in women doctors here and they are wonderful to work with. We are quite neutral on the matter and can only think that in their wonderful work the services of either must receive deep appreciation."

MRS. M. DEAN, 11010 129 Street: "No, I have not as much confidence in women doctors as men, possibly because I believe that women are not as sure of themselves as men. Besides that, men have more confidence in themselves than women, and women are more emotional than men and therefore can be relied upon to the same extent. Perhaps if I were a man I'd have more confidence in women."

Cancellation of the closed season on weasels and badgers is announced by the provincial game branch in the territory from Red River east to the provincial boundary between the Red Deer river on the south and the Battle river on the north. There will now be an open season for these animals in the territory mentioned.

H. Peets, Edmonton truck-driver, started action for $600 damages against the municipal District of Westford before His Honor Judge Crawford in district court on Wednesday, claiming the amount as the result of his truck allegedly going through a culvert last summer while hauling gravel. The case is continuing. C. H. Grant, K.C., for the municipality, and S. H. McCuaig is for Peets.

PIONEER FIRM ANNOUNCES FREE EYE CLINIC

Opens Saturday Morning At Jackson Bros. Jewelry Store

To further commemorate their 18th anniversary in Edmonton, Jackson Brothers, jewelers and opticians are opening a free eye clinic in their store Saturday morning at nine o'clock. The clinic will be on until one o'clock every Saturday from now on.

Adults as well as children will be given free examination by Jackson Brothers' qualified optometrist at these weekly clinics. Parents will now have an opportunity to bring the children in and find out for sure whether or not it is eye trouble that is making their school work so difficult. For it is often true that lack of glasses or the need of properly fitted glasses can cause poor grade in schoolwork.

Astigmatism, poor muscle control and many other common eye troubles will be readily discerned at these free clinics. The most modern eye testing equipment, known to science and an optometrist with a degree received by university examination will assure thorough results.

The same careful attention will be given to those attending the free clinic that is rendered to Jackson Brothers' regular clients. However, it will be advisable to telephone during the week for an appointment Saturday morning in the free clinic. The telephone number is 21747.

Jackson Brothers' slogan is "Good Glasses if you need them . . . Good Advice if you don't."

Judging Starts At Fall Show

Judging of commercial classes at the Edmonton Sheep and Swine Show started Wednesday afternoon with large entries facing the judges in all groups.

The judges are Sid Sheppard and Dr. R. D. Sinclair, Edmonton, in the swine classes, and John Wilson, Innisfail, in the sheep classes.

Thursday morning the judging of pure-bred sheep and swine will start, and on Friday the carcass competitions.

TRAGIC DEATH OF LAD UNDER TRAIN RELATED

Coroner's Jury Exonerates Crew of Blame in Bushfield Accident

The story of the tragic death of an 18-year-old boy who decided to visit distant fields by the "side-door pullman" route was told before a coroner's court Tuesday, by the youth's 19-year-old travelling partner. Stanley Newlove, 19, of Imperial, Saskatchewan, who had seen his chum miss his handhold on a slowly moving freight and fall beneath the grinding wheels.

The inquest, called to inquire into the death of Dennis H. J. Bushfield, 18, of Nipawin, Sask., killed near the C.N.R. waterspout at Carvel, 30 miles west of Edmonton, Monday afternoon, was conducted by Coroner Dr. F. A. Keillor. In Howard and McBride's undertaking parlors.

CREW EXONERATED

The jury, exonerating the train crew of blame and finding that they had done all in their power to alleviate the suffering and save the life of the victim, gave a verdict that deceased met his death as a result of injuries received when he was run over by C.N.R. freight train Extra 4328 east, at 3:45 p.m. Monday.

Following the inquest, the body was released by the coroner to J. E. Brodeur, manager of the city branch of the Banque Canadienne Nationale, who will ship the remains to the home of the parents of the deceased.

Percy Tulloch, brakeman on the train, said he saw the boy spring for the train and fall. The train was drifting in for an inspection stop and was going about 10 miles an hour, he said. The boy jumped for the 16th car and was taken from under the 21st, he testified.

M. J. Williams, conductor of the train, stated that the youth was conscious and talked to him when put on the train. First aid was impossible with the serious nature of the injuries. He died on the way to Edmonton.

Leonard Jones, engineer, stated the lad was found under the truck of a car with a wheel resting in the centre of his stomach. The train was uncoupled to extricate him.

CIVIC ELECTION RULES UNDERGO NEW CHANGES

No Nomination Unless Candidate Has Property Qualifications

Rules governing the civic elections are being tightened this year, for candidates lacking the necessary property qualifications will not have their names printed on the ballots nor will they be allowed to speak at the official campaign meetings.

City Clerk Alfred Russell announces a new form of nomination paper prepared in accordance with a charter amendment secured at the last session of the legislature.

This year the city clerk will require a certificate from Thomas Walker, city assessor and tax collector, with each nomination paper. The certificate will contain information to the effect that the nominee is the owner of not less than $500 in freehold city property, over and above any liens, encumbrances, etc., according to the last assessment roll; or the payer of business tax on an assessment of not less than $500.

New regulations also provide that two of the persons nominating each candidate must file certificates proving similar qualifications. If this is not done the nomination papers will not be received by the city clerk, nor will the contestant's name be printed on the ballots.

In past years candidates have been nominated and allowed to speak without the necessary qualifications.

It is understood that several of those planning to enter the civic elections contest this year do not possess these qualifications.

APPEAL MADE ON SPLASHING VAG CHARGE

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 31—Harry Barrese of Hamilton Tuesday appealed a judgment of Magistrate H. A. Burbidge who found him guilty last spring of vagrancy because his automobile had splashed two women as he drove it through a puddle.

Barrese, who admitted splashing the two women as they waited for a street car, was given suspended sentence for one year and required to post recognizance of $200. Barrese maintains he did not come under conditions of the Vagrancy Act.

FARMER IS MURDERED

REGINA, Oct. 31.—His clothing practically stripped off, his head battered in as if with an axe, Orila Laventure, farming eight miles north of Spiritwood, Sask., was found murdered Monday.

It is believed Laventure was beaten to death a considerable distance from his home, although the body was found in the stable on the farm.

In Greek mythology Charities were the goddesses of grace and charm, called Gratiae by the Romans.

"STAY OUT OF MY LIFE"

By Sophie Kerr

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JANE TERRY comes to New York determined to show her rejecting fiancé, Howard, especially AMY JACKSON, that she can make a success of her life. Amy has been her best friend until HOWARD JACKSON broke the engagement. Jane had forced upon him and married Amy.

In New York Jane obtains a position in a real estate office and soon is making a large income. She has an artist with REGIS TURNEY, starred, but tires of him. When he refers to Jane's existence of "mere child she contemptuously dismissed him. Amy takes the baby, named NANCY, summoning her to reveal its parentage.

When America enters the World War Howard enlists in the aviation corps and goes to a training camp in Texas. His mother comes to stay with Amy and little Nancy. Amy confides to MARY JACKSON that she is expecting a child of her own.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXI

WALKING with Alice made Amy think of Jane, because she and Jane had so often taken this same path. Watching Alice with Nancy reminded Amy of Jane, too, and with a kinder feeling than she had had in the summer. Now and then Mary spoke of Jane, reported something Miss Rosa had told her, something glittering and spectular. Jane was head of a special committee of business women to sell Liberty bonds. Jane was making speeches on the steps of the Public Library. Jane's business was growing. She meant to enlarge her offices. Everything was to Jane's importance and success. Amy listened with an amused twinkle. She could perfectly see Jane swanking around playing her part with dashing conviction, but she felt no tinge of envy. But when, one day late in November, Mary said that Jane was coming to stay with her aunt for the holidays, Amy only commented absently: "That'll please Miss Rosa," and thought no more about it.

The holidays this year meant only to Amy that Howard was sure of his leave for that time. No matter how she felt toward Jane, toward anyone, she could include nothing from episode in that prospect.

With Howard's coming in view Amy first went through her house like a stern and captious stranger, and then, with lists beside her, began a series of renovations which would, she determined, bring it back to the freshness of their honeymoon days.

She improved her meals, too, of the dishes Howard liked best. "And if," she said to Mary, "the Food Administration comes along and puts me in jail for it, I'm not going to use a single substitute while Howard's here. Butter, sugar, white flour—all he wants. I'm going to make a coconut cake as big as a mountain and thousands of raisin cookies. And pecan caramels. And he's going to have popovers and waffles and homemade sausage cakes, and roast turkey and duck and all the fresh vegetables and fruit I can find here or in Hagensville."

"Go ahead," replied Mary. "I'll aid and abet you and go to jail with you if it's necessary." Presently she added: "Rosa would like us to come to her for Christmas dinner, but I told her we wouldn't think of it."

"I'd rather have no dinner at all than go over and—and see Rosa. Mother spoke of having us there, too, but she said she knew it was only a gesture."

Mary answered hesitantly: "Amy, how would it be if I went to Rosa's that day—and let you and Howard be to yourselves? And I could take Nancy—"

"Oh, you make me feel a pig. Do I seem to be trying to crowd you out? On no, Mary, please. You belong here. And I want you. It would spoil everything if you went out—and I wouldn't like to send Nancy away, either. Especially to Miss Rosa, while Jane's there—you went on anyway. "Jane doesn't care much for children, and you noticed how the wrong way the baby took the ever was. Nancy. Very foolish of me, I suppose, but she—well, she said that Nancy wasn't a pretty child and I resented it. I keep on resenting it, too, a small-minded maternal [illegible] family."

"Oh, Nancy is pretty, even if it [illegible] pink-and-white cherub [illegible] and I don't have Jane-Terry [illegible] like. You think Nancy's pretty? I asked you a whole new [illegible] for exactly that! I'm [illegible] impressive for her. It has changed and limited. It's a tickling sort of [illegible]."

"Why, Amy, you of all people to [illegible] remark like that [illegible] does it matter what Jane [illegible]?"

On no, it doesn't, of course. Not really. But if anyone had told you Howard was a plain little boy would you have been pleased?"

"I'd have been as fond of [illegible] whatever you are." And even if it wasn't any question of exposing Nancy to Jane's comments, I wouldn't have Jane go anywhere near Christmas for the world."

There was an expression and [illegible] in her voice that Mary Jackson smiled with gratification. She was excited to have Amy say [illegible] practically, it doesn't matter at all to me to be united in time with Howard as it does you. If my own life's been grown I've learned myself to be contented just [illegible] what he's well and happy somewhere, even when he's not with me. It saves such a lot of emotional wear and tear on both of us."

Amy shook her head doubtfully. "I don't believe I'll ever feel that way about my son," she said.

If one had not had so many things to do, Amy could barely have existed through the last weeks before Howard came. To everything else she added the making of two new frocks for herself, but at this her mother took a firm stand. "I'll give them to you for a Christmas gift," she said, "provided that you don't set a single stitch in them yourself. I mean it, not one stitch."

So that matter was settled, but it did mean visits to the dressmaker for fittings. Both dresses were blue, one very dark and the other the shade of Chinese coolie cotton, bright, yet soft.

Her beauty bloomed in expectance. Sometimes Mary Jackson and her mother spoke of it. There was something beyond reality in it. Her eyes did not get them but only her great happiness, her mouth was curved and red, and soft, her skin was translucently fair. She was luminous, radiant, waiting. In the very last days she did not talk very much. She was with Howard as he took his way toward her She knew the hour when he started, the moment of each step, just where his train would be every mile of the way.

He would come in the evening. She made a last turn of the house, drew the blinds, lit the lights and lived about her approvingly. The room had order and color and warmth and comfort. There were wreaths in the windows and a garland over the mantel. Professor Ellert had sent her a box of white roses and she had cut off the dead branches of the magnolia tree in the garden to burn in the hearth fire for their good smell. Howard's books waited stadily on their shelves, his copper smoking tray was on the table by his chair. It was almost as if he were there.

And then, suddenly, he was there! Tall and strong, cold from the keen winter outside, but with a living and hearty cold that is akin to heat, dropping his cap, his gloves on the floor, smothering her against his greatcoat, holding her, saying her name—"Amy, Amy, Amy. Amy!" telling her all that she needed to know in that one word.

"Oh, but let me look at you!" she said, drawing away a little, but holding him tight. "Why, I do believe you've grown! And what a proud, elegant uniform! And the wings! Oh, Howard—you're grand!"

He could say nothing but her name, and he had tears in his eyes like a child wanting consolation. Finally he stammered: "I was too long. I felt as if all this—and you—didn't exist any more. That I'd never see you again."

After his mother and Nancy came in he found coherence, but all of them were too excited and overwrought to do much but begin sentences and leave them half spoken, forgetting what they meant to say in the overwhelming joy of reunion. Nancy was the calmest of the four, but a little awed by the intense feeling of the grownups. She looked at them in surprise and question. But presently it was reassuring. They could begin to breathe, to be natural.

Howard sat on the sofa between Mary and Amy. Nancy on his knees. "Everything looks so wonderful!" he kept exclaiming. "Here it is, just as I dreamed about it! It's all real!"

Later in the evening people began to come to see Howard—Professor Ellert first of all, beaming at him, lamenting his own age that he could not enlist, working out schemes to get Howard another step in rank—"It's largely pulling the right wires, my boy."—fingering Howard's insignia covetously and unwilling to say a word about college affairs or anything but the army and the war. Professor and Mrs. Lowe came in and the Dean and two or three more of the faculty with their wives. Amy noted that their eyes were obsessed by the war, but that the women listened with a sort of futile angry impatience. She was glad when they were all gone and Mary, yawning, had kissed her son and gone to bed.

Then Amy and Howard sat down before the fire, her head on his shoulder, their hands clasped. "Willie I'm here and when we're alone," he said, "we're going to pretend that it's just as always. I don't want to talk about airplanes or guns or soldiers with you, Amy. I want just my wife and my home. Let's forget everything else."

"Tell me one thing first. Is there any chance that you'll be sent over, any time soon? I don't want that in the background, threatening me. If it's there, I'd rather face it."

"I honestly don't know, darling. Nobody can tell a thing. My work seems to be going all right and I may be kept right at it indefinitely, or I might be ordered up to the Long Island camp—that's where they give the final training; you know—and even if I go there I might be kept right on as an instructor—or I might get overseas orders. I won't say a word, or do a thing to try to stay in Texas. It wouldn't be decent. I've been seeing too many fellows who seem to think this war is a great chance to wangle something slick for themselves and not a war at all. I do my stuff the best I know, and if the orders come—well, they come. There's the whole truth, Amy darling, and the minute I know anything else I'll tell you. And now let's forget it. My time with you is too precious to spoil. I want to have every bit of it, taste it, feel it, look at it, this room with a fire and flowers—these walls safe around us, and you, my very own, with me. I've starved with longing for you."

SCHOOL BOARD TO PUT IDEAS BEFORE GROUP

Brief to be Drawn up For Tax Inquiry Commission of Province

The situation with respect to the financing of education is critical, the problem must be viewed broadly and from the angle of the entire province and the remedy necessitates a major operation, G. L. McKee, superintendent of schools, said in a private brief, prepared for the tax inquiry commission which he read to members of the Edmonton Public School Board, Tuesday night.

Following hearing of Mr. McKee's representations and general discussion, the board voted power to the finance committee, comprising Trustees S. A. G. Barnes, F. C. Casselman and A. B. Ottewell, to draft a brief containing representations of the school board.

Education, Mr. McKee declared, is a provincial responsibility. A radical overhauling of the entire governmental machinery, for the assistance of education, is absolutely essential.

Various suggestions made by Mr. McKee included:

1—Letting the province assume the entire responsibility for operating and financing the schools.

2—Letting the province appoint and pay all teachers, the municipality to be responsible for the balance of operation costs.

3—That the province share on a 50-50 basis the cost of secondary education.

4—That the province increase school grants, the increase to be measured in thousands of dollars and not in cents.

5—Substantial subventions by the province towards erection of school buildings.

6—The province ease the cost of school insurance by creating a device for the insurance of all school buildings and assuming financial responsibility for it.

7—That statutory fees for non-resident pupils be $70 for academic high school grades, $55 for commercial and $80 for technical.

Dealing with means of securing revenue, Mr. McKee advocated the principle of lowering the mill rate on land and finding other means, through utilities or special service tax, for raising funds.

Profits Up

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Increased profits, additions to reserves and increase in working capital were reported Tuesday by International Milling Company for the year ending Aug. 31, 1934. Net operating income, after tax provision, amounted to $1,444,254 compared with $1,163,095 in the previous year.

NONOGENARIAN SINGS TO HER ENTERTAINERS

FORT ERIE, Ont., Oct. 31—Not many persons are able to sing on their 90th birthdays, but friends of Mrs. Catherine Kavanaugh, of Fort Erie West revealed Tuesday that nonogenarian was able to perform the feat Monday.

Mrs. Kavanaugh was entertained at a surprise party by friends whom she rewarded by singing four verses of "Sweet Alice Ben Bolt."

Heart Quits

MOOSE JAW, Oct. 31.—Collapsing from heart trouble while hauling gravel Monday afternoon, the dead body of George Alexander Logan, 60, old-timer of the Tuxford district, was found in a gravel pit Monday night.

HEPBURN WILL TAKE NEEDED REST SHORTLY

TORONTO, Oct. 31—Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn said on Tuesday there would definitely be no December session of the Ontario legislature.

"December is when I take that long-delayed and much-needed holiday of mine," he said.

WHEAT PRICES HOLD STEADY ON' PEG MART

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30—Taking their cue from Chicago, wheat futures prices held steady throughout a quiet Winnipeg Grain Exchange session today. Continued lack of foreign demand for Canada's wheat was disregarded as values closed unchanged to ⅛ cent higher.

Fluctuations were narrow and the market had little feature. The October option closed at 74¾, December 75½-⅝ and May 80⅜-½ cents.

Operations were quiet throughout. Steadiness at Chicago was the chief factor in the local market today. Futures followed up the fractional gains in the southern market with corresponding advances here.

Liverpool closed ½-⅜d lower, but failed to affect values more than temporarily.

Cash wheats were strong with good premiums being paid for No. 1 northern. Coarse grains futures advanced in sympathy with wheat.

Broomhall

CHICAGO, Oct. 31—Foreign markets were weak yesterday in sympathy with Argentine. Rotterdam closed 1⅜ to 1⅞ lower. London bought a parcel of old crop Plate wheat afloat duty included at a price equal to 88 cents. Two Manitobas from Vancouver sold at 80 cents afloat but shippers from Montreal are asking 4 cents more. This wheat is approaching a workable basis and as the Argentine prices are checked by the fixed minimum Manitobas should become attractive. The total North American visible supply of wheat last week amounted to 357,316,000, including the Canadian in bond in the U.S. etc., last year at this time the total was 401,229,000 bushels, which is a decrease of 44,000,000 in the past 12 months. The combined crop this year total as follows: U.S. 497,000,000 against 528,000,000 a year ago. Canada (estimated) 250,000,000 against 270,000,000 a year ago. This is a total of 747,000,000 against 798,000,000 a year ago. The carryovers this season in the U.S. are 293,000,000 against 385,000,000 a year ago and in Canada 193,000,000 against 212,000,000 a year ago, showing that the total amount at the beginning of this season was 162,000,000 less than at the beginning of last season, but the combined visible supply is only 44,000,000 less. The amount held by mills and left on farms is not known. Deliveries from the farms in Canada have been practically the same as last year, and it is thought in authoritative circles that the balance left on farms is smaller than a year ago.

SILVER STOCK PRICES FIRM

TORONTO, Oct. 30.—Silver stocks developed a firmer price tone today on the mining section of the Toronto Exchange but the gold and base metal groups merely maintained their ground generally.

Eldorado closed unchanged at 1.85. Bear Exploration advanced 3½ to 24. Castle gained 6 to 72, White Eagle 1½ and Nipissing was off a few cents. Noranda closed up 20 cents to 32.75 and Base Metals Corporation at 76 was off 9 cents.

Soft spots in the gold group included San Antonio, Gunnar, Bradian, Buffalo-Ankerite, Howey and Macassa. In the penny collection Gabamac worked back to 5½. B.R.X. to 20½ and Kirkland Consolidated to 18¾.

Home Oil dropped 15 cents to 49 and Fractional recessions were chalked up for Acme and Olga.

Livestock

By Dominion Livestock Branch

EDMONTON STOCKYARDS, Oct. 31.—Receipts today were 714 cattle, 192 calves, 99 hogs and 271 sheep.

With heavier receipts and a common quality of offerings, the market is none too active. Insufficient sales were made up to noon to make or establish a market. Salesmen are quoting about steady values. Following are quotations:

BUTCHER CATTLE—
Good-choice fed calves	$3.00	to	$3.50
Plain to medium	1.50	to	2.50
Good to choice steers	2.50	to	3.25
Mediums	1.75	to	2.25
Common to fair	1.00	to	1.50
Good-choice heifers	2.25	to	2.75
Common to medium	1.00	to	2.00
Good-choice cows	1.50	to	1.75
Common to medium	.75	to	1.25
Canners and cutters	.50	to	.75
Bulls	.75	to	1.25
STOCKERS—
Good steers-heifers	1.50	to	2.00
Plain kinds	.75	to	1.25
CALVES—
Good-choice light	2.75	to	3.50
Common to medium	1.00	to	2.50

Up to noon no hogs were on sale, with no prices established.

AT TORONTO

Butcher cattle, $3.75.
Calves opened steady at $7.50 for good and choice vealers.
Hogs, $7.35 f.o.b. for bacons.

AT MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Oct. 31—Receipts 152 cattle, 37 calves, 190 hogs.
Canners and cutters, $1.25.
There were no calves sold.
Bacons, fed and watered, $6.50.

STOCK LIST HAS NARROW RANGE, N.Y.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—The stock market today was a creeping affair. While scattered specialties were taken in hand for sizeable advances, the list, as a whole, was extremely narrow. Merchandising issues weer in demand, but there were also a few soft spots. The close was fairly steady. Transfers approximately 410,000 shares.

PHILLIP BARON

Phillip Baron of Spruce Grove, Alberta, passed away at his late residence on October 28, aged 88 years. He is survived by four sons, Jacob, Henry and Phillip, all of Stony Plain and John of Spruce Grove; eight daughters, Mrs S. Zether of Leader, Sask., Mrs William Shaw of Great Falls, Montana, Mrs. F. Pempict of City Reed, Mich., Mrs Philip Euchelaub of Edmonton, Mrs. R. Swift of Vernon, B.C., Mrs. Jacob Schultz and Mrs. Ed. Steffler, both of Spruce Grove, and Mrs Henry Umer of Vancouver, B.C.; also one brother, Adam, of Spruce Grove. His wife predeceased him in 1926. The late Mr. Baron had been a resident of Spruce Grove for the past 43 years. A private service will be held at the family residence, Spruce Grove, on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and the funeral service will be held 2.30 p m. at St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Spruce Grove. Rev. Poetch will officiate and interment will take place in the Spruce Grove cemetery. Howard and McBride, Funeral Service.

EDWARD GABEL ROBARTS

The funeral service of Edward Gabel Robarts, of South Edmonton, who passed away at his home on Saturday, October 27, at the age of 66 years, was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock from Holy Trinity church. Rev G. G. Reynolds officiated and interment was made in the Mount Pleasant cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. N. C. Willson, George Hazlett, John S. Ritchie, C. Briggs, J. S. Allan, R. Lloyd-Jones. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were received. He leaves to mourn his loss besides his loving wife, one sister, Mrs H. S. B. Chamberlain, of Calgary, Alberta Hainstock and Son, Funeral Directors.

In the list of floral tributes of the Alfred L. Bessey funeral the names of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hope were inadvertently omitted.

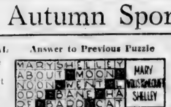
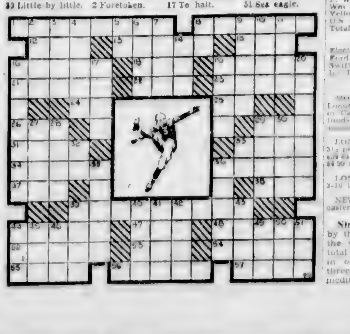
Answer to Previous Puzzle





New Agreement Arises Out Of Tangled Affairs

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The tangled Anglo-German trade relations arising from Germany's transfer moratorium, foreign trade restrictions and the inability of British cotton and coal exporters to collect payments in arrears, were said Tuesday to have been regulated anew in the form of an agreement.

It was reported Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, will announce details in the house of commons Thursday.

The agreement, provisional in character, was believed to provide for the immediate payment of a round sum and for payment of the remainder of the arrears in 12 monthly instalments.

BANK CLEARINGS TAKE JUMP IN EXPIRING MONTH

Indicative in financial circles of a very material uptrend, bank clearing house figures for the month of October, closing today, show an increase of $1,967,293.87 by comparison with the clearings for October, 1933.

During October last year the bank clearings aggregated $15,169,804.40. The total for October, 1934, is given as $17,137,098.27.

Authorities hold that the increase is a healthy sign that money is loosening-up and a general spending-confidence being restored.

Police Court

Three more citizens, Charles Albert Webb, Axel Christiansen and James Francis Freemand each, paid a $2 fine for failing to get radio licenses on time. W. G. D. Allen, inspector of the department of marine, is making the prosecutions.

Albert B. Wyley came before Magistrate Esten Williams again on Wednesday morning and received an adjournment to 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, on his case of allegedly uttering threats against Commissioner of Oaths Barnard of the city relief department.

Adjournments to Friday were given Phillip L'Heureux, charged with keeping liquor for sale, and John Schadick, facing a count of illegal possession.

Arthur Gregoire, insurance agent, who kept his clients' money so that no policies were issued, got another remand for sentence to November 5.

Union Wages For Relief Works Is Urged By Jobless

That trade union scales of wages should be paid for all relief work, were among the "demands" voiced at a meeting of single unemployed men held at the Albion hall on Tuesday.

Other demands for single unemployed included: the right to collective bargaining and the right to strike; the bringing of all relief camp workers under the compensation laws; that the work camps be placed under the control of provincial or dominion public works departments, depending on which of these two authorities is carrying out the projects, and free transportation for all camp workers wishing to exercise their franchise at elections.

FARMER PARTY MEMBERS HERE FOR BIG MEET

Two-day Caucus Opens on Thursday for Discussion of Problems

United Farmers of Alberta members of the legislature began a converging movement on the city on Wednesday in preparation for the opening on Thursday morning of a two-day caucus to discuss problems of interest to the party.

EXECUTIVES EXPECTED

While members of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. executives and U.F.A. members of parliament are expected to sit in, none were seen around the legislative corridors on Wednesday morning.

One of the most vital problems to be discussed will be the date of the next provincial general election, which, members asserted will not take a great deal of fixing.

The vote will not be before seeding and it will be before harvest. Therefore the choice is certain to be in the latter half of June, with a convenient date between June 15 and June 20 as almost certain.

DOUGLAS SYSTEM

The adoption of the Douglas system to suit Alberta's needs; legislation to be brought down at the next session; the Edmonton by-election to fill the seat left vacant by the death of C. Lionel Gibbs, Labor, Edmonton and the general outlook for the party are among the matters that will be discussed.

It is expected attendance will be 100 per cent of those eligible to attend.

FINAL PRICES ABOUT STEADY AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The stock market closed the books on October today with profits and losses about even on the month and sentiment decidedly mixed. A few specialties worked up substatially in today's session, but most of the odd-line leaders were only slightly higher. Final prices were about steady. Transfers approximated 400,000 shares.

Aussie Essay For Students Brings Official

Here in connection with trade matters and also to show Edmonton school children a composite motion picture of Australia, C. E. Critchley, Commonwealth trade commissioner, is registered at Macdonald hotel. A nation-wide essay contest is being conducted by the Commonwealth in Canadian schools, the first prize being a free round-trip to Australia, with a $50 cash prize for the best essay from each of the Canadian provinces. Under the auspices of the C.M.A., schoolroom showings of the special film are being arranged in every Canadian city.

The trade commissioner has headquartered at Toronto for the past four years, and is now on his way to the coast.

Will Commence November 7 and Wind up on November 13

Seventeen official meetings have been arranged for the civic elections campaign which opens Wednesday, November 7, and closes Tuesday, November 13, according to a list prepared by the committee in charge and released Wednesday by City Clerk Alfred Russell.

Two meetings scheduled for Monday, November 12, are for mayoralty candidates only. Contestants for the mayoralty will be allowed to speak for 10 minutes, while aldermanic and school board candidates will be given five minutes. All meetings will open at 8 p.m.

The full list of the official campaign meetings follows:

Wednesday, Nov. 7.—Westmount school, Jasper Place school, Calder school.

Thursday, Nov. 8.—Victoria high school, King Edward school, Rutherford school.

Saturday, Nov. 10 — Eastwood school, Highlands school, Franciscan hall, North Edmonton.

Tuesday, Nov. 13—Memorial hall, Garneau school, Norwood school.

Olds, Vermilion Agric Schools Open New Term

With increased enrolments the Olds and Vermilion agricultural schools opened their school years on Tuesday. At Olds there were 185 students enrolled with the likelihood of 15 more, against 140 last year. At Vermilion there are 125 enrolled with 25 more likely as against 100 in 1932, the last year in which the school was operated.

Of the enrolment at Olds, 65 are women and there are 35 women at Vermilion.

At Olds there is a matriculation class of 16, made up of farm school graduates taking either agriculture or household science to qualify them for university matriculation.

Navigation On Great Lakes To End In November

From Montreal to the head of lakes, Saturday, Nov. 24; from Toronto to the head of lakes, Wednesday, Nov. 27; from Hamilton to the head of lakes, Wednesday, Nov. 27; from Homer and Thorold to the head of the lakes, Thursday, Nov. 28; from Leamington, Windsor and Walkerville to the head of the lakes, Thursday, Nov. 28.

B'nai Brith Lodge Elects Officers

A successful dinner marked the annual meeting of the local B'nai Brith lodge on Tuesday night at the Talmud Torah hall, 103 street, when Donald Cameron, librarian at the University of Alberta, made a witty address. Ben Leibovitz, president of the lodge for three different terms, was in the chair.

The following were elected to the new slate of officers: William Levine, president; Rabbi Eisen, vice-president; Dr. A. B. Greenberg, monitor; Melvin Friedman, secretary; Julius Erlanger, financial secretary; A. A. Dower, treasurer and William Goldberg, inner guard.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Leibovitz and other retiring officers.

Chancellor's Kin Becomes Engaged

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The engagement of Dorothy Chamberlain, daughter of Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, to Stephen Lloyd, son of a Birmingham industrialist, was announced Tuesday.

Members of the Royal North West Mounted Police Veterans' Association and the Edmonton and District Pioneers' and Old Timers' Association will be largely represented at the funeral of James McKernan, 83, who died on Sunday. The funeral will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday from Holy Trinity church, with the church rector, Rev. G. G. Reynolds, officiating. One of the first men to enlist in the R.N.W.M.P., Mr. McKernan served at Macleod and elsewhere in this province.

Revenue of the city license department to date this year totals $62,319 as compared to $61,015 for the corresponding period last year.

LABOR PLANS 5 CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN

Party Likely to Have Only Two Candidates for School Board

A slate of five will be in the field for the Canadian Labor Party seeking election to the aldermanic board if present plans of the executive materialize. The executive will meet at the offices of the Commercial Printers Wednesday evening to decide on the fifth aldermanic candidate.

It is understood that the search for a third candidate to fill the school board slate has not been successful, and that the party will only have two candidates in the field.

The executive will consider a request from the Economic Reconstruction Association asking for the Canadian Labor party's endorsation of Mrs. I. Ringwood, school teacher, who is a candidate for the aldermanic board. A similar request was made to the Independent Labor party, but that body replied that it was nominating a full slate from members within its ranks.

JOBLESS MEN GOING TO B. C.

A group of 35 single unemployed men left this city on Wednesday for the East Kootenay Dominion government works camps and an equal number will leave each day for the rest of the week. The movement commenced on Monday and will continue until about 800 men have gone from here and 1,300 from the province as a whole.

On Wednesday morning 40 men started work in improving provincial government grounds. They are single transient unemployed who are provincial charges. In Calgary, under similar circumstances, 130 men are at work on the technical school grounds.

A condition of the Dominion taking over the men in East Kootenay is that the province will become responsible for any returned.

46,239 VOTERS ON CITY LISTS

There must be something wrong with Calgary's population figures or there are grievous errors in its voters' lists, as with its alleged 20,000 more population it can only muster a paltry 919 more names on its urban lists than Edmonton.

The official figures released by the registrars of electors in East and West Edmonton Wednesday morning give the city of Edmonton a voting strength of 46,239, the Calgary official figures for the urban portion of the two ridings are 47,158.

According to the figures supplied by the registrars in the two Edmonton ridings there has been an increase in the number of voters in Edmonton of 6,492 over 1930. The figures for West Edmonton for the present enumeration are 21,468 as against 18,308 in 1930, while in East Edmonton this enumeration gives a total of 24,471 voters on the lists against 21,468 in 1930.

Big Game Hunting Season Opens In Alberta Thursday

The deer, moose and caribou hunting season opens Thursday, to last for six weeks, and hunters clad in the regulation scarlet, prepared to sally forth for the opening day, while some parties started two days ago for the rough bush country of the Brazeau valley, to the south of Evansburgh.

Deer are to be found fairly close to the city, with chances improving the farther away in the woods the hunter goes, while moose are to be found within a 100-mile radius to the north, west and southwest. Only one male of each species may be shot, with horns over four inches in length.

The same rules apply to caribou, which can only be found in the mountains and thick bush north of the Athabaska river. These are the big woodland and mountain caribou, much larger than the barren-lands species.

ROAD REPORT

The "all clear" signal was reported for all roads in the district by the latest reports issued by the Alberta Motor Association Wednesday. Roads in the Peace River section which have been muddy owing to recent rains are now reported as rough to good.

A detailed report follows:

Jasper-Edson, O.K.; St. Paul road, O.K.; Peace River, rough to good; North Battleford, O.K.; Wainwright, O.K.; Viking, O.K.; Hardisty, O.K.; Macklin, O.K.; Mulhurst, O.K.

Partly Cloudy Weather Forecast

Partly cloudy weather is forecast, with Thursday's temperature billed to be a little milder.

Temperature was 28 degrees at 2 p.m. up from a point of 20 at 5 a.m. Yesterday's highest was 30.

The barometer this afternoon registered 27.60, down, while a south-easterly wind prevailed.

SEASON HITS ON BILL FOR CAPITOL NOW

"Hideout," "Barretts of Wimpole Street" and Others on Menu

Big season's hits have been booked for the Capitol theatre during the next few weeks, sufficient to please the most exacting of patrons.

Norma Shearer

The manager, Walter Wilson, feels that never in the history of Edmonton house has such an outstanding seasons' list of pictures been assured.

On Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2, the feature attraction will be "Judge Priest," starring Will Rogers in his latest success. This is from Irvin S. Cobb's comedy that was received with such great popularity.

For six days, commencing Saturday, Nov. 3, the attraction will be the latest picture but, Chained, featuring Clark Gable and Joan Crawford. This is regarded as one of the most thrilling romances of the season.

Joan Crawford

Coming for three days commencing Nov. 10 is Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, starring W. C. Fields, Pauline Lord, Zasu Pitts and Evelyn Venable.

The attraction for one week commencing Nov. 17 is one of the great pictures of the present year. This is the Barretts of Wimpole Street." Starring in this attraction are Norma Shearer, Frederic March and Charles Laughton.

With an unusual cast of famous players on screen and stage, "The Count of Monte Christo" will be presented, starting Saturday, Nov. 24.

Man Struck Down By Runaway Trailer

Struck down by a trailer that broke loose from the rear end of a car and ran wild on the St. Albert Trail near the city limits shortly before 2 p.m., Tuesday, John McKenzie, 10580 102 street, employee of the city engineer's department, was taken to the Royal Alexandra hospital with minor injuries.

S. H. Phillips, of Prestonville, was driving south along the St. Albert road at the time when his machine broke loose from the rear end of his car and hit the pedestrian.

RIALTO HAS BOOKED BIG FILM LISTS

"Thine Is My Heart," starring Richard Tauber.

Jan Kiepura, whom many will remember as the great tenor in "Be Mine Tonight," will once more lend his marvelous voice in "My Song for You."

"Evergreen," starring Jessie Matthews, will play at this theatre shortly. Conrad Veidt, star of "Rome Express," appears in "Power," adapted from Lion Feuchtwenger's book, "Jew Suss."

Frank Capra, who produced the two finest pictures last season which played at the Rialto theatre "Lady for a Day" and "It Happened One Night," has made another outstanding picture, "Broadway Bill," with Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy, supported by an outstanding cast.

Grace Moore will appear in another production made on the same scale as "One Night of Love."

Rudyard Kipling's "Soldiers Three," Jack Hulbert in "The Camels Are Coming," Cicely Courtneidge in "Me and Marlborough," Jessie Matthews in "Sam and Sally" and Tom Walls in "Man Save the Queen."

Edward G. Robinson and Claudette Colbert are busily engaged in an outstanding production, Edmund Lowe and Jack Holt will appear in a picture suited to their talent.

Among the outstanding productions for the new year is "Girl Forced," "Carnival," "Black Room Mystery," starring Boris Karloff, "Maid of Honor" and "Feather in Her Cap."

Other pictures to appear at the Rialto theatre include Victor McLaglen in "Dick Turpin's Ride to New York," "Lorna Doone," adapted from the book of the same name by R. D. Blackmore, "Java Head," the best loved English classic by Joseph Hergesheimer, "Bulla Bennett," "Are You a Mason?" and the famous Irish musical, "Lily of Killarney." One of the finest English comedies to be made this year is "Those Were the Days."

SWIVEL CHAIR PLANE PILOTS TO BE OUSTED

Officers Must Take Tests To Make Sure They Can Fly

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—The army is going to weed out its "swivel chair" airplane pilots by asking all air corps officers with fifteen or more years service take tests to determine their flying ability.

The tests, it was said recently, are being shaped around recommendations of the special board headed by Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war.

All generals, colonels, majors and a majority of the captains in the air corps will be examined. All found disqualified for further flying will be assigned to ground duty, transferred to other branches of the service, or retired.

There are three generals, nine colonels, thirty-one lieutenant colonels, eighty-one majors and 362 captains in the air corps. Elimination of those found unfit for further flying will make way for the promotion of many younger men of junior rank.

The infusion of younger blood, war department officials said, would not only improve the fighting abilities of the air corps but also raise its morale.

The general staff, which ordered the new tests and now is preparing them, had historical precedent for its trials in President Theodore Roosevelt's famous "Russian ride." "Teddy" caused the elimination of all officers who could not ride horseback thirty miles a day for three successive days.

SOVIET WIPES OUT GRAFTERS

MOSCOW, Oct. 31—The nation-wide campaign in the U.S.S.R. to wipe out graft and pilfering in government institutions has swung into high gear, with arrests, trials, sentences and executions running over 100 a week, and with millions of roubles involved.

Implicated, since the campaign began, have been not only petty thieves and swindlers, but directors of important institutions and factories, and high party officials, more than one of whom has been sent to death with a bullet in the back of the neck for his cupidity.

And the list of articles stolen, within a single week, runs from a dozen football bladders, smuggled out of a Leningrad rubber factory, to nearly $17,000 embezzled from the foreign trade store, Torgsin, in Astrakhan, at the other end of the vast territory of the U.S.S.R.

A survey of the cases reported in the official press in one week gives some idea of the scope of the campaign, and the scope of the measures the government is taking, through its courts and special tribunals.

Tories Are Asking Henry To Resign

TORONTO, Oct. 31—The Mail and Empire today says a group of Conservatives, headed by Karl K. Hamuth, former legislature member for South Waterloo, are reported to have written former Premier George S. Henry demanding he retain as leader of the Ontario Conservative party. They also are reported to have demanded Mr. Henry offer no obstacles to the summoning of a provincial Conservative convention at an early date.

Theatre Men Have Eye For Beauties

ANN HARDING

CONNIE BENNETT

CLAUDETTE COLBERT

Here's New One To Puzzle You: Look for "Imp"

Here you are—all you bridge players, who moped in corners because there wasn't a fourth contract player about, or all you jig-saw puzzlers who ranted about because someone mussed up a day's work. Here is something you can play all yourself—as a matter of fact you will prefer solitude—and something you can carry with you, fits in the palm of your hand to play, and in your vest pocket or purse when business presses.

Of course, this "something" is "Imp," that new puzzle that is sweeping the country. Imp" tournaments, parties, afternoons and evenings, will be planned. Canada is now going "Imp" with the rest of the world.

"Imp" fits in a neat patent case and it's just the thing for you gentlemen to while away the minutes or hours waiting on your wife's garage man, your street car, and for you women while sitting under those inferno-like driers at the hair dressers.

If you have a minute, let us tell you just how one "Imps." And if you have another minute, you have time to get an "Imp." And every minute after that you'll have you'll be "Imping."

You'll be able to buy them at Eaton's on Saturday, and there's bound to be a rush on them.

The gadget is a square metal thing with 15 smaller squares. The one empty place makes possible the puzzle. The idea is to get the figures in their right order.

The puzzles are so well made mechanically that it's fun to slide the numbers about, craftily shunting and manipulating to get the arrangement you want. Then you can keep on indefinitely, for the same mathematical mind that conceived of "Imp" has estimated that there are roughly 1,300,000,000,000 combinations you can get. Of course, that is only theory, but even a fraction of the number could keep most of us busy.

And you can't cheat at this newfangled device. That makes it even more a puzzler. The numbers are locked in securely. No monkey business with "Imp." Cheaters won't get to first base with it.

People in on the know — that is, those who have already taken home one "Imp"—give advice that for domestic happiness and harmony there is a necessity for more than one "Imp" in the family.

The gadget is just one jump ahead of every puzzle. It is really king of all puzzles.

If you want to be in the swim of things, then you must have one "Imp" or several "Imps". If you have much entertaining to do "Imp" solves all hostess problems. And really clever hostesses — if they can lay this gadget down long enough — will get busy with favors and decorations using the "Imp" idea. Remember, we raid clever hostesses.

No longer is there need for anyone to count sheep. You can shift numbers "till the cows come home," and maybe work it and maybe not.

Lifelong Friends Die On Same Day

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Oct. 31—Two pioneers, Jackson Clarke and William Wallace, who were lifelong friends in Dundee, Scotland, before they migrated to Australia, died here on the same day.

Clarke, who came to Australia sixty-seven years ago, leaves three sons, three daughters, eighteen grandchildren and ten great grandchildren, while Wallace, who came to Australia in 1857, leaves a wife, eight sons, five daughters, sixty-one grandchildren and forty-seven great grandchildren.

Mr Clarke fought in the American Civil War under Grant.

All Rags Ordered Saved In Germany

BERLIN, Oct. 31—To combat a wool and cotton shortage the German government has ordered the reclamation of all old rags.

They will be used as base material for artificial wool and cotton. Attics were ordered emptied of any rags or old clothes.

AMARILLO, Texas, Oct. 31—The trick might have worked in the days of the rustlers.

An Amarillo man lost a cow and had an idea. He advertised in the paper that he wanted to buy a cow. The third cow offered him was his own.

BANDITS WORK LIKE DILLINGER

CHICAGO, Oct. 31—Is there a "new" Dillinger gang?

Authorities speculated on that possibility last night as they combed Chicago for George ("Baby Face") Nelson, new public enemy number one, and trigger-man of the old Dillinger mob.

The search for Nelson was intensified a few hours after nine robbers rushed the Aetna State bank in typical Dillinger style, cowed 31 persons with machine guns and pistols, made away with $18,500 and fled in two automobiles.

ITALY SHOOTS MAIL BY TUBE

TRIESTE, Italy, Oct. 31—A steel tube was rocketed from the side of a mountain near here Tuesday, and landed undamaged in a valley 2½ miles away, with a cargo of 1,600 letters.

The demonstration, using a speedy means of transporting mail between nearby points, was termed a success by its inventor, Gerard Zucher.

Restoration Pay Cut Advice Of Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—Full restoration of United States government pay cuts next July 1 will be recommended by President Roosevelt.

MOLLISONS AID RETURN FLIERS

LONDON, Oct. 31—After being delayed by low pressure in the port engine, Cathcart Jones and his co-pilot, Ken Waller, took off from Karachi, India, for Bagdad, Iraq, at 3 p.m. G.M.T., on his flight from Melbourne to London.

Generosity of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mollison made it possible for Jones and Waller to continue their flight after a delay of eight hours at Allahabad, India.

The Mollisons, forced out of the race at Allahabad, gave the returning fliers a cylinder out of the engine of their plane. After installing it, the Englishmen were able to fly on to Karachi. Previously engine trouble had caused them to turn back.

The delay, however, blasted all hope of the fliers beating C. W. A. Scott's winning time to Australia.

DEATH CALLS NORTH BISHOP

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31—Most Rev. Isaac O. Stringer, Anglican Archbishop of Rupert's Land, collapsed on the street here Tuesday and died shortly afterwards in the office of the synod, to which he had been rushed. Physicians say death was caused by a stroke.

Archbish Stringer, who was 68 years of age, had been appointed to the Rupert's Land post in 1931, following 26 years as Bishop of the Yukon.

EARTH SHOCK CAUSES PANIC

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Oct. 31—Two strong earth shocks of about six seconds' duration caused a panic here last night. They were registered at 6:05 p.m. Crowds rushed from theatres, homes and public buildings to parks and open places.

Edible mushrooms the size of dinner plates grow along a small ice-free area at Smith Sound, Greenland, although the snow does not disappear until mid-June and killing frosts come in the following August.

MEXICO STILL FEARS CHURCH

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 31—Repeating his charges the Catholic clergy are attempting to overthrow the Mexican government by force, President Abelardo Rodriguez Tuesday instructed Attorney-General Portes Gil to investigate and "act with all energy" to bring charges against those he found implicated.

The president stated that on the pretext of opposing the installation of Socialistic education in Mexico, a campaign instituted by the clergy has been converted in frank campaign of sedition which would compel us to question about a rebellion."

Dionne Babies Still Growing

CALLANDER, Ont., Oct. 31—The quintuplet daughters of Mr. Oliva Dionne five months and two days old, Tuesday showed substantial gains in weight as they continued their new diet of pasteurized cow's milk and cooked cereal.

One of the heaviest jobs in the world is that of washing in Bikaner, Indian state. The average life span of washers here is only 37 years, due to poisoning.

KINSMEN JUNIORS WITHDRAW FROM PLAYOFF

ONCE MIGHTY BALL BUSTER OF CUBS IS GIVEN RELEASE

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The "Old Hoss" of the Chicago Cubs, Jackson Riggs Stephenson, was turned out to pasture Tuesday. After nine years of service, the once mighty slugging outfielder was exiled from his home in Akron, Ala., for a conference with President Phillip K. Wrigley, who gave him his unconditional release, and then, in a rather touching ceremony, presented him with a handsomely engraved watch as a token of the club's appreciation. Steele was for years noted as one of the deadliest hitters in the pinch in all baseball.

BOXING OFFICIALS REFUSE TO SANCTION WELTER BOUT

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—The Canadian Boxing Federation will not recognize the bout between Gordon Wallace and Billy Townsend at Vancouver Nov. 7 as for the Canadian welterweight title, send at Vancouver Nov. 7 as for the Canadian welterweight title, E. W. Ferguson, secretary of the Federation, stated here last night. The Federation has wired the promoters, Ferguson said, that the winner will be recognized as British Columbia champion for the time being and that Wallace will be named Canadian champion. Ontario had two nominees, Ville but not as Canadian champion. Ontario had two nominees, Tommy Bland and Genovese, and Montreal had two claimants, Joe Dunn and Henri Auger, all three being in line for elimination bouts before a titleholder could be named.

PATS and PANS by BILL LEWIS

Edmonton's chance for at least an inter-provincial Junior Canadian football championship disappeared last night, with the Kinsmen's decision to withdraw from the Western playdowns. . . . University of Alberta has the distance to bring the Far-Western and Intercollegiate crowns to Edmonton but this city's opportunity to stage a junior title went to the hounds when Kinsmen decided to not proceed further in the championship chase.

It was an unfortunate break that prevented Kinsmen from going through with the playdown series. . . . After winning the junior title for Edmonton for the first time since 1927, the squad must stand aside while Saskatchewan and Manitoba tilt/ out/ le for the Western Canada championship. . . . It is not a nice prospect for the boys to face— but it's just one of those things.

Varsity plays Vancouver Meralomas at the Coast tomorrow night and Saturday and then Saskatchewan University and British Columbia for the Intercollegiate crown. . . . If they succeed in knocking over Meralomas they will play the winners of Manitoba-Saskatchewan for the Western Canada title. . . . Robbie is one of the most popular hockey play-

Provincial Champs Not To Play Coast Gridders For Title

COL. HUSTON MAY PURCHASE DODGER TEAM

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 — Col. Tillinghast L. Huston, former part-owner of New York Yankees came forward Tuesday as a possible purchaser of the Brooklyn Dodgers and employer of Babe Ruth as a manager.

"If the Brooklyn club is for sale at the right price you can count me as a prospective buyer—and the man I want as manager is Babe Ruth," Huston said.

Huston, who as partner of Col. Jacob Ruppert engineered the deal that brought the Babe to the Yanks from Boston has not been connected with baseball in recent years.

His interest was revived, he said, when he heard Ruth was looking for a managerial berth and not finding it. The turn toward Brooklyn came from league officials who said that Ruth would be taken to snapping and playing for Brooklyn without effect on contract.

Endorse Orillia

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—The Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association Tuesday endorsed action of the Ontario Track wardens of Mimico Mang cup, in going to the Pacific coast for a post-season exhibition series much as Hespeler club of Vancouver, and voted that no ruling be taken to suspend any player for playing without effect on contract.

British Columbia Squad Also Withdraws When Teams are Unable To Finance Series

Edmonton Kinsmen, Alberta junior football champions, will not compete in Western Canada gridiron playdowns against Vancouver Junior Meralomas, British Columbia champions, it was decided at a special meeting of the local team's executive last night.

Following the decision made by the Kinsmen management came the announcement from the British Columbia champions that they would also drop out of the play-off picture.

With both teams having defaulted it now seems likely that Winnipeg and Regina will battle for Western Canada honors.

UNABLE RAISE FUNDS

Unable to raise the necessary funds to bring the coast squad to Edmonton was the reason advanced by local officials for their withdrawal from the playdowns, while the attitude from the B. C officials was to the effect that they would default in order to let the Alberta champions go through with either Western Canada playdowns. Kinsmen in this case would meet Regina, champions of Saskatchewan but it is hardly likely that Kinsmen will change their plans of withdrawing from the playdowns.

Should the Kinsmen squad decide definitely to drop out of the Western Canada playdowns, Regina will battle for the honors of Western Canada football supremacy.

TICKET SALE OUT

On account of the annual seat campaign promoted by the Kinsmen Club and carried out by the members, it was decided they could not follow through with their original plans for selling tickets on two distinct causes and one of these must be dropped and the one of these was the donation to the funds for the football finals. Members of the Kinsmen club would be much too busy with the annual campaign to sell tickets for the football team.

It was reported by more than one member that that Vancouver's champions be kept out of the picture this season due to their late graduation and only after C. S. Crossley, president of the West ern Canada Rugby Union, and secretary Harold Carter, were the Bright Columbia champions allowed in the Western Canada playdowns.

Coast Gridders Also Withdraw

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31.—Meralomas Juniors will not enter the junior intercollegiate championship this year, Dr. Walter Sturdy, president of the British Columbia Rugby Football Union stated last night.

Previously the Vancouver junior team had intended meeting the Alberta winners. Dr. Sturdy said. When the Alberta club was unable to guarantee expenses and they would be forced to default Dr. Sturdy notified them the B. C team would withdraw from the playdowns in order to let Alberta go through.

HECK FOWLER HUSKY COACH

SASKATOON, Oct. 31.—The athletic directorate of the University of Saskatchewan announced tonight the signing of Norman "Heck" Fowler as head coach of the Huskies for the coming season.

The newly appointed mentor will succeed Jack Watson, who has been in charge of Saskatchewan's football squad since 1931. Watson, who was a star on the Pacific coast team, Vancouver, and Seattle Athletic old professional team, headed the Saskatoon Quakers in the Albion Cup finals in the spring of 1933.

BASKET BODY MAY DESERT A. A. U. SOON

Coast Association Wants Cagers to Break Away From Simon Pures

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31—Complete severance of all relations with the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada was urged on the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association in a resolution forwarded to the C.A.B.A. by the British Columbia Basketball Association last night.

The resolution, moved here by western provincial basketball association, to break away from the A.A.U. of C. asks that the C.A.B.A. organize as a national organization along lines similar to the Dominion Basketball Association. The Alberta Basketball Association forwarded a similar resolution to the par-ht body two weeks ago. Walter Hardwick of Vancouver, vice-president of the C.A.B.A., stated last night.

Excessive overhead and the claim the A.A.U. of C functions as a deterrent to amateur sport so far as basketball is concerned are the main reasons given for the proposed change.

Both Alberta and B. C associations declare they are paying dues into the A.A.U. of C which are unnecessary and for which they receive no corresponding "benefit."

FRANK SHIELDS ENTERS MOVIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Francis X. Shields, for five years one of the leading tennis players of the United States, launched a movie career Tuesday when he signed a seven-year contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

In contrast with the ventures of other star athletes, most of whom forego their amateur status before or at the time they entered motion pictures, Shields' contract permits him to retain his "amateur" standing.

It does not call for the present six-time United States court man to wield a racquet and leaves him free to be a candidate for next year's Davis cup team.

News of Last Two Holdouts Cheers Hawks

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. Oct 31— The arrival of Paul Thompson of Calgary, high scorer of the world's champion Blackhawks, and the news Lorne Chabot, Belgian goalie, had agreed to terms and was on his way to join the team, brought cheer to the Hawks training camp Tuesday.

The appearance of Thompson was the occasion for much elation on the part of Manager Marsh, who, with both of his line mates, Thompson and Romnes, on the holdout list, had been operating on make-shift lines since the training season started.

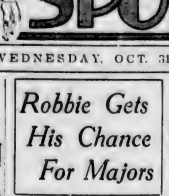
At yesterday's practice, Manager Clem Loughlin was able for the first time to figure with some certainty how his forwards will line up for the opener at St. Louis, November 8. Thompson and March, with Norman Locking in place of Doc Romnes at centre, made up one line. Gottselig, Couture and Moreno lined up on another, while a third line consisted of Louis Trudel of Edmonton, at left, Tommy Cook at centre, and Gaddo Goddo, wintering from Edmonton, at right. Aing said Deputy McFadyen of Winnipeg attending at both centre and left wing.

Traynor Signs

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.— The signing of Manager Harold ("Pie") Traynor to lead Pittsburgh Pirates in the baseball wars of 1935 was announced last night.

Traynor was named player-manager last June, replacing Geo Gibson. He received a salary boost at the time. Although terms of the new contract were not disclosed, it was reported Traynor had been given another raise.

Robbie Gets His Chance For Majors



EARL ROBERTSON

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.— Earl Robertson, last season's goalie for Edmonton Eskimos in the Northwestern Professional League, will invest between the pipes for Montreal Maroons at today's practice at the training camp here.

Veteran Alex Connell, formerly Ottawa Senator goalie, suffered a hand injury last night in the third period of an exhibition game against New York Rangers. Tommy Gorman, Maroon leader, believes a small bone was broken in Connell's left hand during a scramble around the Maroon net.

Robertson arrived in Winnipeg the first of the week seeking a tryout with Maroons. He may get the call in the third exhibition game between Maroons and Rangers here Thursday night.

EDMONTON RING STAR DEFEATED

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Billy Petrie, Edmonton welterweight was outpointed by Billy Barr of Wrexham in a 10-round bout at Battersea Monday evening.

Two more Canadians were on the losing end of bouts on different cards Monday night. Over the 12-round route Billy Reynolds of Newcastle outpointed Teddy Hare of Toronto, while Len Harvey of Manchester knocked out Phil Mutton of Canada in the first round of scheduled 10-round encounter. The count lasted 50 seconds.

Expects Little Difficulty Over "Packed" Teams

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man., Oct. 31.—Excepting possibly the Maritimes, President E. A. Gilroy of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association anticipates few difficulties in keeping amateurs within the rules and regulations of residence qualifications.

Reviewing the whole situation today, Mr. Gilroy said replans to believe that they are declaring the rules and regulations would be strictly enforced and have instructed the presidents of all branches except the Maritimes. All presidents, requiring had promised the fullest co-operation.

EASTWOOD WINS SOCCER HONORS

Holding a 2-0 lead as result of their victory in the first game of the series, Eastwood battled Queens avenue to a scoreless draw, winning the total-point series by a 2-0 count for the east and north divisions championship in the senior public school soccer league.

By virtue of their triumph over Queen's avenue, Eastwood now awaits McDougall and Calder to play-off and the winner of that series plays Bennett, the victor then plays Eastwood.

Queen's Avenue had the best of play during the first half but had very few scoring chances to capitalize on while Eastwood featured better in the second spell.

Both teams played well with play being evenly divided. Jack Haya played a great game at his defence post for Eastwood, while Owen Jones was the star forward for the winners.

Keith Stewart handled the game.

Kearns Wants To Save the Pieces

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Seeking to save the remnants of a $2,000,000 fortune acquired managing Jack Dempsey and Mickey Walker, Jack Kearns Tuesday placed at auction the furnishings of his palatial home and prepared to move to a 10-acre poultry ranch near Van Nuys, Cal.

Furnishings that cost more than $10,000 12 years ago brought only a few hundred dollars under the auctioneer's hammer.

Kearns made it clear he is not leaving the boxing game.

Canadiens Send Pair to Quebec

QUEBEC, Oct. 31.—Adelard Lafrance and Bob McCaffrey, who have been training with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League at Saint John, N.B., left Saint John Tuesday to join the Quebec Beavers of the Canadian-American League, Lucien Garneau, president of the Beavers, announced.

Lafrance came to Canadiens late last season from Sudbury, Ont., and McCully played in the Northwestern League last year. Quebec is Canadiens' farm team.

Four Bouts Are Arranged For Boxing Card Friday

Commission Heads Choose Strong Slate of Officials

Having received the Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission's sanction for Friday's show, Mike "King" Kaplansky's boxing card was rounded out with a strong slate of officials to guide the contenders through their rounds of prominent entertainment at the New Empire theatre here Friday evening.

Four bouts have been arranged by Kaplansky for the boxing fraternity's enjoyment with Battling Sig Tracey and Sailor Goodland headlining the show in a 12-round go. A fast semi-windup and two more well matched preliminaries have also been arranged with Edmonton being well represented on the card with some of their best mittmen.

Grudge battles, three in all, have been matched for Friday's fistic warfare and strong competition by all fighters is expected to be the order of the evening.

A battle that will be watched with much interest will be the vengeance seeking Tracey-Goodland go in which Tracey is confident of either flooring or outpointing the sailor lad.

Only once before have these fighters battled and on that occasion Goodland emerged the winner, but the decision favoring him was very unpopular. Tracey Friday seeks to demonstrate why the fans booed the decision favoring his opponent. Over the 12-round route, Tracey expresses determination of winning the verdict as he has always in previous bouts been able to stand the long grind and stay on his feet.

The decision awarded Scott against Williams in a previous bout here and which caused no little argument will be seen again here Friday. Williams, as many fans declare, won the bout against Scott but they will definitely settle that question in the second preliminary. Red Wells of Penhold, who recently whipped Johnny Smith, will be seen in the curtain raiser against Jimmy Collier, of Edmonton.

James McNamee Seeks Nomination

BONNYVILLE, Alta., Oct. 31.—A well-known farmer of the district and member of an old and prominent Liberal family, James McNamee will seek nomination in the Federal riding of Athabasca at the Liberal Convention to be held at Lac La Biche on November 2. Mr. McNamee is a McGill man and attended the University of London. Now his interests run to sheep and pure-bred jerseys.

In entering the field of politics Mr. McNamee is following in the footsteps of his father who was well-known among Liberals in British Columbia and in the Yukon in the great days. On one memorable occasion James McNamee Sr., was a guest at Sir Wilfrid Laurier's table.

St. John Ambulance Inspection Held

Great improvement was noted by Dr. Charles J. Copp, commissioner of St. John Ambulance Society during two inspections which took place Monday night.

Squad drill, extended physical exercise, hand seat drill and a considerable amount of first aid work was done by members during the inspection which took place in the police gymnasium. First aid rendering, and bed making was inspected by the commissioner at the meeting room of the Y.W.C.A.

Visitors Win

SACKVILLE, Oct. 31.—Supporting a resolution "That this house would rather have written Gray's Elegy than have taken Quebec" (Wolfe's famous claim), visiting debaters from Oxford and Cambridge Universities won the decision in a debate with a Mount Allison college team.

News Merger

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Two United States newspapers published in Paris—the Paris editions of the New York Herald and the Chicago Tribune—will merge December 1 with the New York Herald company publishing the newspaper under the double name.

Do This
10 MINUTES BEFORE YOU GO TO BED...

THEN SLEEP
Like a Child Tonight
—Feel Like A Different Person Tomorrow

The way to get sound sleep quickly at night, entirely without drugs—a way that brings abundant new energy.

Deep, refreshing, restful sleep! Get your full eight hours tonight. There is a simple way to overcome sleeplessness without the use of drugs—Ovaltine.

Ovaltine is not a medicine in any sense of the word. It is a delicious food concentrate. You take it in hot milk at bed-time. And you SLEEP like a child.

You wake up a different person—in looks and spirit—with renewed driving force and increased vitality. For not only does Ovaltine help you get to sleep quickly—it improves the quality of your sleep.

SAY GOOD BYE TO SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Ovaltine is a concentration of certain natural foods, scientifically treated by the exclusive Ovaltine process. It is approved by physicians the world over, and used in hospitals. Phone your druggist or grocer for a tin of Ovaltine now. Add two teaspoonfuls to a cup of hot milk and drink it just before retiring tonight. See how quickly you drop off to sleep—how much more completely you rest. In the morning when you awaken, take stock. Note how much fresher you feel, how much more rested you look.

NOTE—Ovaltine is approved by physicians as a nerve food for nervous, run-down conditions in adult men and women; as extra nourishment for nervous, underweight children; and as a strengthening food for nursing mothers, convalescents and the aged.

SIMON PURES ARE RELEASED BY AMERICANS

Two Calgary Juniors Will Get Chance for More Seasoning

OSHAWA, Ont., Oct. 31.—Manager Joe Simpson Tuesday started speeding up the training grind of the New York Americans and at the same time disposed of a few more aspirants for places on his National Hockey League club. No new amateurs will jump into professional ranks by way of the Americans this year. The two remaining prospects, Ab Cronie and Mel Snowden, from Calgary, have been sent home as Simpson considers they are not yet ready for professional hockey.

The American manager said he was pleased, however, with the two amateurs' showing and his scouts will keep an eye on them during the coming season. Gaston Leroux, another amateur, has also left the Americans' camp.

SUB GOALIE GOING

Morris Roberts, second string goalie who played in a few games last year when Roy Worters was hurt, will remain with the team several days for practice sessions, but will then move on to Cleveland where he will do the net-minding for Indians of the International League. Roland Reeves, forward, will also go to the Indians, and not to the Buffalo Bisons, as reported Monday.

Lorne Carr, last year with Syracuse, has gone back to that team, but Simpson tied a string to him and he may return to the New York club before long.

Simpson was all smiles yesterday, declaring his squad is rounding into satisfactory form. He will get a definite line on the players Friday night when they meet Buffalo in an exhibition game here.

PLAYERS ON HAND

Wood veneers as thin as paper are being made on a commercial scale.

Capt. Bate Heads Army Riding Team

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Capt. Stuart S. Bate will head the Canadian Army team which will arrive this week-end to compete in the International Auxiliary Jumping competition at the National Horse show in Madison Square Garden, Nov. 7-13.

Riding with Capt. Bate will be Capt. Churchill Mann, and Lieuts. H. A. Phillips and A. P. Ardagh, the latter two newcomers to the New York equine show.

RANGER PUCK SQUAD BEATS MAROONS 4-2

Overcome Two-goal Lead To Beat Montreal Team Tuesday

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—Overcoming a two-goal deficit, New York Rangers rapped in four goals in the winning minutes of the third period to win 4-2 and go one up in the second game of their exhibition series with Montreal Maroons here last night. The first game ended in a 2-2 tie. Third and last game will be played Thursday night.

THEY BREAK JINX

Breaking through the jinx Alex Connell, Maroon netman, held over them for two periods, Rangers drilled four perfect counters past the Ottawa fireman within two and a half minutes to clinch the victory. It was a stirring finish which saw both teams discard their wraps and serve up hockey in mid-season style.

Defeat for Maroons brought home train injury for their star net man. It was announced after the game Connell was suffering from an injury to his left hand. The injury was not known until after the goalie had returned to the dressing room and complained of a paralysis. It was not believed serious, but the club physician said an x-ray would be made Wednesday.

SECURE EARLY LEAD

Maroons took a one-goal lead in the first period when Earl Robinson rapped in on a scramble before goalie Worsley could get set. Second point for the Montreal side came from the stick of Johnny Webster, freed by Menzies Hawk product making his first pro appearance. He snared a pass from Hooley Smith and whipped it past Jackson after four minutes of play. Bun Cook broke up the game at this point when he snapped in Boucher's rebound in nine minutes. Bert Connolly, another former Edmonton amateur luminary, tied the count two minutes later and assisted Art Somers with a third. Cowley Burch ended the splurge just before the whistle.

LINEUPS

Rangers—Jackson, c. Shore, defence; Patrick, defence; Boucher, rover; forwards, subs, Connolly, Somers, Murdoch, Pilous, Cook, Gottselig, Seibert, Cox and Hextall.

SUMMARY

First Period—1, Maroons, Robinson, 19:20. Penalties, Shields and Heller.

Second Period—2, Maroons, Webster (Smith), 4:04. 3, Rangers, Cook (Boucher), 9:12. 4, Rangers, Connolly, 11:38. 5, Rangers, Somers, (Connolly), 11:52. 6, Rangers, Mason (Hextall), 13:23. Penalties, Northcott, Ward, Shields.

Referee, A. L. Dowd.

Olympics Win

DETROIT, Oct. 31.—Detroits International League representatives, the Olympics, reinforced by several of Detroit's National League team, the Red Wings, defeated their major league cousins by a score of 4 to 3 in a high flying contest here last night.

NEW RING PILOT BUYS BROUILLARD

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The management of Lou Brouillard, 23-year-old French-Canadian battler who lost both the welterweight and middleweight championships the first time he defended them, changed hands Tuesday. Maurice Lemoine sold his interests in the stocky boxer to Johnny Buckley of Boston, director of the stable headed by Jack Sharkey, for a price said to be under $5,000.

HAP EMMS GOES TO BOSTON CLUB

QUEBEC, Oct. 31.—Hap Emms, the hard-working left-winger acquired from Ottawa by Boston Bruins arrived in Quebec Tuesday and worked out with Boston Cubs. The Bruins face Cubs in the afternoon. He will join Manager Frank Patrick's National Hockey League team on their return here from the Maritimes on Saturday.

The Bruins and Canadiens will stage an exhibition game in Quebec next Sunday.

BUFFALO BISONS BUY MASSECAR

FORT ERIE, Ont., Oct. 31—Manager Mickey Roach Tuesday announced he had bought outright George Massecar for his Buffalo Bisons of the International Hockey league. Six Bison regulars also placed their names on the dotted line yesterday, Roach said. Included Massecar played left wing with Detroit Olympics of the I. H. L. last season.

WINDSOR SEEKS ERIC PETTINGER

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 31—A deal is in the offing in which Frank Daley and Andy Bellemer of Windsor Bulldogs would go to London in exchange for Eric Pettinger, brilliant pivot of the Tecumsehs, manager John Chick of the local International hockey league squad admitted Tuesday.

Daley performed for Tecumsehs last year, being on loan to them, while Bellemer did duty for Syracuse Stars, going to that team in exchange for Gus Forslund and "Snarky" Vail. At the end of the season he returned to Windsor.

Maple Leafs Sign Amateur Netman

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—Manager Connie Smythe of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League announced Tuesday in a long distance telephone conversation from Galt that he had obtained a signed contract from Phil Stein, goalkeeper, who played last year with the West Toronto Nationals in the Senior Ontario Hockey Association series.

JOLIAT SIGNS HIS CONTRACT

SAINT JOHN, Oct. 31—Salary differences between Aurel Joliat and the management of Montreal Canadiens were adjusted satisfactorily here Tuesday, and the No. 1 left winger signed a contract, coach-manager Newsy Lalonde announced last night. While several other contracts remained to be signed, he said, no difficulty was anticipated.

Close tight followers are looking for one of the greatest battles staged here in many long years when Big Tracey hooks up with Sailor Goodland in the feature bout of Friday's card here.

Tracey reckoned one of the finest sluggers to come from Edmonton in many long moons, carries no little grudge against Goodland and is determined to come out of the bout with a knockout to his credit. Goodland, on the other hand, considers this a big opportunity to make some both Eddie Wenstob and Tiger Jack Delaney sit up and take notice of him, so that a real battle should result.

There is likely to be somewhat of a blow-up in A.A.U. circles over the action of the British Columbia Basketball Association in favoring withdrawal from under the wing of the former body.

The A.A.U. of C. does not stand in any too strongly at the present time with the various affiliated organizations and a move like the present one will only tend to further weaken its hand.

BUYING AT HOME GIVES BOOST TO EDMONTON PAYROLLS

HIGH QUALITY PRODUCTS ARE SUPPLIED HERE

Huge Investment in Equipment Made by Many Manufacturers

"Buy at home" is a slogan that makes a special appeal at a time when everything possible should be called to the aid of business recovery.

In Edmonton, manufacturing firms have demonstrated their faith in the city by making a huge investment in plant equipment, buildings and services. They have established a reputation for supplying a quality product, ready to command a wide commercial field.

That demonstration of confidence merits an enthusiastic response on the part of consumers. They should see to it that Edmonton-made goods are given primary consideration, backed as they are by the fact that the manufacturer has a special knowledge of this field's requirements through being located on the ground.

INDIVIDUAL DUTY

One often hears some person talk about the need of larger payrolls in showing that that is the way to business recovery. But the point overlooked so frequently is that there is an individual duty to see that money is spent at home. If that were done, the larger payrolls will take care of themselves.

Some illuminating figures were obtained through a survey made two years ago by the Joint industries committee. This showed in connection with the output of "local" concerns that 43.9 per cent was sold in Edmonton, 43.9 per cent. in Western Canada outside of Edmonton, 2.8 per cent. in the United States and 9.4 per cent. in Eastern Canada.

If the agricultural population of towns of northern Alberta had purchased Edmonton-manufactured goods in the same proportion as the city itself, the local output would have been increased two and a-half times. The population here drawing regular pay would have been increased by over 7,000 with a payroll of $8,000,000.

SERVES MANY PURPOSES

If the money were turned over once, it would be substantial, but, as a matter of fact, it serves many purposes before it finds a resting place and causes an immense increase in trade.

As most of Edmonton's industries are working under capacity they would have no difficulty in taking care of such an increase.

Nineteen — Count 'Em — Nineteen

GANDHI WILL RENEW DRIVE

BOMBAY, Oct. 31.—M. K. Gandhi's retirement from the presidency of the Indian Nationalist congress was only a tactical move to prepare the way for his return with dictatorial powers to direct a new campaign, it was suggested here Monday.

After assessing the actual disposition of India toward an immediate and effective boycott of British goods Gandhi will reenter the congress, it was predicted, armed with perfected economic weapons and better able to carry out his fight for Indian independence.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. Oct. 31. Friends of Kathryn Crawford, stage and screen actress, said James Edgar, heir to the Edgar sugar fortune, said last night the couple were en route by train to Detroit, where they will be married next week.

LONE SAILOR FEARED GONE

ANCUD, Chile, Oct. 31—The waterfront in this Chilean port was inclined to believe Monday that Al Hansen, the lone Norwegian, round-the-world sailor, is lost in his 25-foot slop, the Mary Jane.

After crossing the Atlantic and proceeding to South America, Hansen arrived here last June 18 and left for Valpara'so three days later.

The fact an unusually severe storm lashed the coast of Chile after his departure, together with his failure to appear at any port in the last four months, has convinced observers the venturesome Viking has perished.

50,000 CHINESE ARE HOMELESS

KAIFENG, Honan Province, China, Oct. 31.—More than 50,000 Chinese were made homeless Monday by the rain-swollen Yellow River which broke over its northern banks and submerged 150 square miles of farm lands in northern Honan, in the vicinity of Wuchih and Menghsien. The flood victims face a winter of severe famine.

Films in which animals appear are the most popular of all motion pictures in Japan.

59th Person Dies On Suicide Bridge

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 31.—Pasadena's ill-fated "suicide bridge" has claimed its fifty-ninth victim.

Several hours after he either leaped or fell from the eighty-foot span on Colorado Street, Gust Piccoulas, fifty-three-year-old confectioner, was found dead beneath the bridge.

FLYING PIECES OF GRINDSTONE CAUSES DEATH

HAWARDEN, Sask., Oct. 31.—His skull and face pierced by the flying pieces of the grindstone over which he was working Monday afternoon, Fred Murray, 53-year-old blacksmith of this place, died at his home an hour later without regaining consciousness.

Blacksmith here for the past 16 years, Mr. Murray was working over the grindstone when it broke up and flew in all directions, some of the pieces cutting his face and skull and exposing the brain.

Earth Shock

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Oct. 31.—A sharp earthquake shock was felt here at 6.15 p.m. Monday. There was no immediate report of any damage.

FATHER AND 4 KIDDIES BURN

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, Oct. 31.—A father, his four children and a boarder per, were burned to death before day break today when fire destroyed a five-room shack on the outskirts of the city.

COMPARISON

Inevitably a discussion of the merits of a piano leads to this question—

"Is it as Good as a Heintzman?"

We are jealous of our reputation for building fine pianos. It has become a tradition in the Heintzman family. In 1850 Theodore A. Heintzman first imagined and built a piano on which he as a fine craftsman was proud to put his name. Led as the piano industry was far superior to any other, each year saw the Heintzman of today the ultimate standard of comparison.

When you buy a piano—buy a Heintzman and know that you have purchased the finest instrument your money can buy. As a piece of furniture it is designed to dignify and enhance any room. As an instrument it will thrill you with its flawless tone and action. We know that you will be proud to own a Heintzman.

HEINTZMAN PIANOS
ARE NOT EXPENSIVE

Messrs. Heintzman & Co. have no desire to compete in prices with manufacturers of cheap pianos. This point should be distinctly understood. While their pianos are the best that can be made, in reality only moderate prices are asked for them. Indeed, it would be impossible to sell pianos of this grade for less money, since, while nothing is omitted that can improve the instrument in any respect, strict economy is maintained in the manufacture, so that no material is ever wasted, or unnecessary expense incurred for which the purchaser has to pay.

Not Crooner, So He Escapes Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—"Is he a crooner?" asked Judge Sylvain Lazarus.

"No—not a crooner," replied Officer J. Gustler.

"It's a good thing," declared the judge. "I'd have sent him to jail for life. As it is, I'll suspend sentence."

By that margin escaped Richard Jones when in court for disturbing the peace by singing at Powell and Ellis streets at 2 a.m.

Furniture Firm Has Record Year

Reporting a large increase in business over the same period last year, the Troock Manufacturing Company is enjoying the best year in its history.

Starting in a small way nine years ago, Mr. Troock at that time employed only one workman, but now the same factory employs eleven men and two girls.

Troock-built living room furniture is well known in Edmonton and is distributed all over Alberta parts of Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

The founder of the company, Mr. Troock, has spent a lifetime in the business, having learned his trade in the old country.

The large and roomy factory covering an area of 7,500 square feet is located at 9457 118 avenue.

By enquiring at the furniture dealer the prospective Chesterfield buyer is enabled to choose from a large selection of tapestries and mohairs and have the suite made to his own individual requirements.

Mr. Troock looks forward to one of the most successful fall businesses in the history of the firm.

"Dial of Pleasure" Series Takes One of Greatest Forward Strides in History of Radio.

Sensational improvements have been made to the new Northern Electric Company, Ltd., radios which are now being stocked by local dealers. Not content with bringing in one new improvement, such as satisfies many manufacturers, the Northern Electric company has brought in no fewer than five spectacular and far-reaching developments.

NO VIBRATION

The new radios, termed the "Dial of Pleasure" series takes one of the greatest forward strides in the history of radio. The revolutionary cushioned reception completely eliminates vibration.

By the introduction of angle tuning, by using selective full vision dial, by automatic devices whereby only scale is visible at one time Northern Electric has simplified tuning and has made it more accurate than ever before.

This new tuning accuracy plus an automatic aerial switch built right into the set, make for new ease, new perfection, new simplicity and greater efficiency of short-wave reception.

LARGER SPEAKERS

Then the new models have larger speakers than are usually found in similarly priced sets. This is achieved by incorporating a new-type circuit and this produces a new beauty and new fidelity of tone.

There are nine beautiful models to choose from, consoles, mantel and table models, all wave or selective wave and all touching a new peak in radio manufacturing.

C.N. Appointment

MONTREAL, Oct. 31—Announcement of the appointment of Frank A. Young, general eastern passenger agent of the Canadian National Railways at New York, to the post of general manager of the National terminals of Canada, Montreal, was made here Monday. Mr. Young succeeds Alexander Fleming, retired.

Concrescence is the growing together of young plant organs by reason of mutual contact or pressure when forming.

Ex-Dictator Real Ruler Yugoslavia

GENERAL PETER ZIVKOVITCH, former military dictator of Yugo-Slavia, who experts some time ago predicted would soon be the actual ruler of his country, has been summoned to Belgrade to attend conferences of government heads.

Woman Must Serve Time For Error Murder

PINE BLUFFS, Ark., Oct. 31—Mrs. Ross Hanson, 31-year-old wife who shot to death by mistake an 18-year-old girl as "the other man," must serve two years in prison for her act.

A Circuit court jury convicted her late last night on voluntary manslaughter charges after hearing the story of how Mrs. Hanson last July entered the girl's room, ordered her from her bed, where she was confined by illness, and shot her down.

The victim, Miss Therese Luzzetti, was a recent high school graduate.

Bid Is Made

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Judge William P. James Monday took under advisement until Saturday the bid of $4,000,000 made by Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, for properties of the Richfield Oil Co. of New York, subsidiary of Richfield of California, now in federal receivership.

Trinity Church, 287-year-old structure at the head of Wall Street, New York City, is the richest church in the U.S. and possibly in the world. Its real estate holdings in lower Manhattan alone were assessed at $27,879,400 this year.

G.W.G. PLANT CONFIDENT IN CITY'S FUTURE

Now giving employment to a greater number of workers than at any time since 1930, the Great West Garment factory announces its full-hearted cooperation in "the better times parade."

The boosted payroll of this manufacturing firm gives indication that there is a return of buying power and, with price levels up to a more profitable level for both producer and manufacturer alike, a renewed confidence is seen.

The Great West Garment company, established in Edmonton for 23 years, distributes through the retail stores from the head of the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast.

G. W. G. garments have always maintained an unwavering reputation for quality and, throughout the lean years, the high standard of value has been upheld.

TOYKO, Oct. 31.—The 15th International Red Cross conference which has been in session here since Oct. 20, with about 200 delegates representing 57 countries, was formally closed Monday when the Marquis of Casa Valdes, Spanish delegate, proposed that the next conference be held at Madrid in 1938. His proposal was unanimously approved.

Output Of City Industries Over Thirty Millions

Output of Edmonton's manufacturing establishments was estimated at $31,000,000 in a survey made some time ago by the industries committee.

While it is realized that this production has been curtailed by effects of the depression, it is apparent that this city offers great opportunities for development along manufacturing lines.

Many visitors claim quite confidently that Edmonton has not been hit as hard by the depression as other parts of the dominion. This is confirmed by business executives who have stated time and again that the showings at their Edmonton branches have exceeded those in other cities with even larger populations, besides being ahead when compared on a basis of proportion to population.

INDUSTRIAL SURVEY

The last industrial survey showed 208 manufacturing concerns here with a combined capital of $18,390,000.

Employes of these firms numbered 3,681 males and 1,055 females, whose yearly payroll was $3,632,000.

Seven firms were engaged in the manufacturing of brick, marble, stone and tile.

With a capitalization of $1,911,500, 27 firms were listed under the heading of printing, advertising and newspapers. The products included advertising novelties, signs and stamps.

Heading the list of manufacturers in point of numbers were those engaged in the production of food and drinks. This group comprised bakeries, breweries, bottling works, canned foods, candy, coffee and peanut roasters, dairy products, flavoring extracts, flour and prepared foods, cereals, packers and vinegar.

There were 45 of these manufacturers with a capitalization of $7,820,640 and an output of $21,996,475.

The survey also showed 20 firms operating in the wood working field, such as boat building, box making, creosoting ties, caskets and coffins, excelsior, fixtures and house furniture, mill work and saw mills.

No less than 22 firms were in the metal industries, such as foundry and machinery shops, sheet metal products, welding, wire and ornamental iron works and dynamos.

In the auto trades, 11 firms were operating, handling auto tops, radiators, springs, batteries and glass.

Sixteen concerns were listed in the clothing industries, manufacturing men's and women's clothing, caps, gloves, shoes, besides the furriers and tailors.

There were eight listed as cleaners, dyers or laundries, while 31 were on the miscellaneous list, comprising paper box manufacturers, brooms, commercial photography, coal mines, cut flowers, harness and collars, natural ice, jewelers, railroad lighting, taxidermists, tanners, tents and awnings.

BEAVERLODGE, Oct. 31.—The skating and curling rinks are rapidly nearing completion and arrangements for flooding will be made at an early date. C. Newton, homestead inspector, was in Beaverlodge Thursday receiving applications for homestead patents

POWER PLANT PRODUCER OF BIG REVENUE

Edmonton has ample reason to be proud of its utilities and among these great services the power plant stands out as one of the most ilies the power plant is owned and controlled by the residents.

Profits pyramided by the utilities have been most gratifying. Since 1902 when the city was just emerging from the pioneer stage until Jan. 31, 1933, the utilities piled up a combined surplus of $6,017,035, and for the first seven months of the current year there was a further $468,700 added.

Exponents of public ownership point to these figures as being conclusive proof that such ownership is successful.

Of the large total piled up in utility surpluses the power plant has contributed a large share. Of the surplus for the first seven months of this year, the power plant contributed $146,634, while the total last year for the same period was $151,491.

In July of this year the net surplus was $19,458 and for the same month last year it was $11,480.

The net surplus of the electric light department for the first seven months of the current year was $122,490, against $113,128 in the same period last year.

MOST of the important developments of the past decade have been along electrical lines. The most important function of a power company is to supply service which will allow the fullest utility of these developments to be realized. It must have vision in forecasting the probable requirements for the public, whose servant it is, and fully providing for those requirements. In this respect, Calgary Power Company Limited is making every effort to keep faith with its many customers.

Marconi Enters Low Price Ring In New Models

Together with the announcement of eight new Marconi models for the 1935 fall season, Canadian Marconi Company are releasing details of one of the most complete merchandising plans in this organization's history.

An important feature of this year's Marconi plans is the decision to enter the low-price field. Marconi has hitherto concentrated its efforts largely in the higher-price brackets, but, starting with the fall 1934 season, Marconi broadcast receivers will be made available in the lower-price ranges. This will be accomplished without in the least sacrificing any of the recognized Marconi excellence.

Accompanying this significant change in policy, the company announces the presentation of six entirely new and strikingly different models that anticipate by several years current developments. Again the Marconi Battery Receiver, Model 45, has been designed, as were its predecessors, to give maximum operating efficiency at minimum cost. Battery drain is ridiculously low, while sensitivity, selectivity and tone equal those of A.C. receivers. Models 49 and 51, table and console receivers respectively, are six-tube units embodying the new Marconi R.V.C. Radiotrons, and having "selective wave" circuits that cover both long and short-wave bands. Models 53 and 54 with eight and eleven tubes respectively, are all-wave models embodying all the latest and exclusive Marconi developments, including an unique tuning meter and an overload adjuster for improved reception. All models have been built to achieve suitable sound reproduction through the incorporation of circuit and equipment refinements, and the artistically designed cabinets which incorporate are also to be a feature in this year's Marconi sales plans, follow a totally new and original motif.

But outstanding in the Marconi 1934-35 line will be Model 55. This unit is a totally new departure, and achieves the ultimate in broadcast receiver design. It is equally three receivers in one, the Marconi answer to the problem of high fidelity sound reproduction and long-distance selectivity and selectivity. Either one of these three receivers may be used at will by merely setting the push-button on the rotary switch provided. With the switch turned to position 1, Model 55 becomes a standard, high selectivity high-accuracy receiver for listening to week distant stations. Position 2 provides a receiver of the "high fidelity" type for use when a strong local station is available. It is in this position that the receiver delivers, without any limitation whatsoever, every sound that is produced before the microphone, or at least every sound that the transmitter is capable of transforming into electrical impulses. In the operation of the ultimate position, it can produce all sounds audible to the human ear 60 to 8,500 cycles and so gives perfect value to every gradation of tone, nuance and color. Position 3 converts the receiver into a unit capable of rebroadcasting the signals of long distant stations with remarkable fidelity.

In short, Model 55 has been engineered to achieve maximum results under any operating conditions, at a reasonable flexibility for, and cost, proportionate to Canadian operating conditions.

THIRD ANNUAL PLAY WRITING CONTEST OPENS

The Department of Extension of the University of Alberta announces the third annual play-writing competition open to residents of the Province of Alberta. This competition is made possible through the generosity of the Carnegie Foundation.

A prize of $125 will be awarded for the best three-act play, a prize of $75 for the best one-act play, and a prize of $50 for a third play chosen from either group. The judges may reserve awards, should they feel that the plays submitted are of insufficient merit to justify a decision.

Rules of the competition are:—

1—The contest is open to any resident of Alberta.

2—The play must be the original work of the competitor and must not have been previously published or submitted.

3—It is desired that the play-wright should be left as unhampered as possible in time and treatment. However, it is suggested that the play have a Canadian background, if possible.

4—The play may be in any number of scenes or acts, the playing time not to be less than 30 minutes and not to exceed 2½ hours.

5—Competitors are advised to submit copies, not original scripts, as the return of the copy is not guaranteed.

6—All plays are to be typewritten, double spaced, on one side of regulation bond paper, legibly, with a margin of two inches.

7—The Carnegie Trust committee and department of Extension reserve the right to produce any of these plays without payment of royalty within one year after the contest closes.

8—The competition closes Feb. 2, 1935. Plays bearing a postmark later than February 2 will not be considered.

9—Plays should be submitted to E. A. Corbett, director of the Department of Extension University of Alberta, Edmonton.

J. A. DELISLE WILL REPRESENT U. F. A.

SPEEDEN, Oct. 31.—At the nomination convention of the Beaver River U.F.A. held here Thursday, J. A. Delisle of St. Paul was unanimously chosen to contest the constituency in the forthcoming provincial elections.

The convention was held in the community hall, which was packed to capacity, delegates and members coming from nearly every local, despite the adverse condition of the roads.

The convention was fortunate in securing many able speakers. M. Luothkovich, M.P. for Vegreville, spoke on monetary and banking questions, while Hon. J. F. Lymburn, attorney general for Alberta, spoke on cause of administration ills. Hon. Alex. Kennedy of Vegreville, dairy commissioner for Alberta, on experiences in organization of relief. Isadore Gareau, M.L.A., for Whitford, spoke briefly on the history of party and organization.

STUDENTS DEPART

BIMBEY, Oct. 31.—Four of Bimbey young people have departed to other points to continue school work. Miss Alma Bisby and Miss Elsie Conroy have entered the Normal class in Battle College at Red Deer. Miss Flora Hodson has gone to Trochu to take high school work and Mr. Gordon Mansbridge has returned to Camrose for the second term in the secondary school there.

First Albertan Stock Entries Are Made In Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—First entry from Alberta for the 1934 International Livestock Exposition to be held here Dec. 1 to 8, has been received from W. A. Crawford-Frost of Nanton.

He will exhibit in the hereford cattle classes.

Wheat Estimate Is Six Bushels

ERSKINE, Oct. 31.—The Alberta Wheat Pool elevator's crop estimate for the entire acreage in the Erskine district is six bushels of wheat to the acre, 10 bushels of oats and 10 of barley. This estimate includes all the land sown, including bailed sections.

T. E. Lihou, Jr., has sold his effects and farm and will move to British Columbia. Some high prices were registered at the auction. Three colts, rising four years old, broken to work, weight 1200 pounds each, brought $50 each.

The British American Oil Company has installed a new service station in front of A. Otto's feed and lumber office.

Some diet experts contend that our digestive systems need 16 hours rest out of 24 and that one good meal a day is sufficient.

Oddfellows And Rebeccas Meet

STETTLER, Oct. 31.—Representatives of lodges from Alix, Erskine, Halkirk, Big Valley, Donalda and Stettler attended a big district meeting of I.O.O.F. and Rebecca lodges, held here last week.

The Oddfellows were presided over by E. Gale, Halkirk, deputy district grand master, while F. C. Haynes of Halkirk represented Grand Lodge. The Rebeccas were presided over by Mrs. J. Clarke, Stettler, district deputy president and Mrs. Davis, Calgary, provincial president, represented the Provincial Assembly.

The conference ended with a banquet, at which 180 were present and a dance in the evening.

Earthquakes would be more frequent were it not for the many volcanoes of the earth, which act as safety valves for the tremendous pressure beneath the earth's surface.

Snow Still Covers Stooks In North

BEAVERLODGE, Oct. 31.—Stooks are still covered with frozen snow and will require considerable warm weather before threshing can be resumed. There has been no work done since October 19. With 18 to 20 degrees of frost every night and temperature around 50 all day, the prospect of early completion of threshing is not encouraging.

J. Easterbrook Dies at Millet

MILLET, Oct. 31.—James Easterbrook, well known resident of Millet, died Sunday morning after a lengthy illness, at the age of 84 years. A prominent Mason for more than 60 years, Mr. Easterbrook owned Burlington, Ont. Lodge No. 163 as his Mother Lodge.

Born in the county of Huron, Ontario, deceased moved to Kenora when a young man, leaving there in 1902 when he came to Millet, where he resided with his son, Fred. He leaves his son, Fred, two daughters, Mrs. Barr of Westaskiwin, a brother in Exeter, Ont., and two sisters in Hamilton.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from the Millet United church. Pallbearers will be members of the Westaskiwin Masonic lodge.

Moves North

CONTRACT BRIDGE

WRITTEN FOR THE BULLETIN

By E. V. SHEPARD

FAMOUS BRIDGE TEACHER

DON'T HURRY BIDDING

One of the greatest weaknesses of [illegible] bridge players is the tendency to [illegible] and to jump to [illegible] bids. Instinctively I feel that the best declaration for the joint 26 cards has been reached. Then the contract may be made as great as cards justify. Sometimes a bid leads to a bad result or an apparently inferior call the best obtainable for the side. Last evening my partner and I held the North and South hands shown. As I dealt, I made an opening bid of 1 spade. What happened and what might have happened are interesting lessons.

Of course North had to show his hearts. Had he bid 2, I would have raised that number and we would have had a slam at some stage. He might have bid 3 hearts, to my mind a forcing bid. Instead he did either of three rational things. North jumping to 4 hearts. I passed. Had I [illegible] and of the 4 spades, then East won a trump trick, but ruffing North to full advantage.

Being inexperienced North thought that 4 hearts would be the best contract he could be headed by the four top honors is established, even if partner called a singleton. As a matter of probabilities such a condition will find the suit established only 38 times in 100.

[illegible] Against any opening lead there was no way to be made good at no trumps without [illegible] diamonds and 5 tricks. Against any opening lead except trump a spade there should be nine tricks in spades. By one of [illegible] the wrong [illegible] would be 5 heart tricks [illegible] tricks and a single trick [illegible] yield 7-600, which [illegible] a finesse.

Quality Goods at Low Figure Promised on Edmonton Days

Prices are light—goods are bright—times are right.

Owlish wisdom dictates the necessity of grasping the fall of 1934 to spend money. Never in many years has the market been so much a buyer's market.

Manufacturers are straining to turn out quality goods at low figures.

From mountain peaks of 1920 commodity prices have slipped to unprecedented levels. The result of that toboggan slide has brought retail prices within easy reach of every man's pocketbook.

The buyer's dollar carries off more goods than it has for a long time.

It is the opportunity of a half-century. Prices may be on the rise soon. Inflation talk has nine lives—and inflation would mean a jump in prices.

In recent months, commodity prices have stirred. It may be the signal for a big upward movement in commodity prices. Wheat, copper, sugar, rubber, oil—and a dozen other prime commodities, indices of the economic trend, have dared to put a foot on a higher rung.

Beer Voted Out At Leslieville

LESLIEVILLE, Oct. 31.—Leslieville voted dry and Golden Heights voted wet in recent local option voting on a beer parlor. The Leslieville vote was 114 for and 148 against, at Golden Heights 28 for and 20 against.

The following officers of Lodge 1060 B.M.W.E. were elected at the recent annual meeting: S. Gormley, president; D. Peters, vice-president; G. Milson, past president; C. Smith, secretary; W. Pascall, chaplain; C. Bowman, conductor; J. Cole, warden; A. Feyz, inner sentinel; J. Oshust, outer sentinel; committees, executive, W. Pascall, J. Cole, J. Oshust; grievance, C. Smith, S. Gormley, C. Bowman.

H. Ainsley's lecture on Social Credit drew a crowd of some 80 people to the community hall. Threshing is now completed and fall plowing is in full swing. Work on the new curling rink will soon be resumed.

Pool Ships Hogs

RIMBEY, Oct. 31.—The Blindman Valley Hog Pool shipped 115 hogs to Montreal on October 24, at an advance of 6 cents. Gordon Wright, buyer for the pool, went on to Calgary the same day.

SID PARSONS,

first president of the Edmonton Home and Property Owners' Association and well known contractor, who is making a strong run as Labor candidate for alderman in the forthcoming civic elections.

Wetaskiwin Gets Shock Over Stevens

WETASKIWIN, Oct. 31.—Leading Conservatives here were shocked at the forcing out of the cabinet of Hon. H. H. Stevens in whom were centered their hopes for political advancement along lines suited to these difficult times. Mr. Duggan's attitude as expressed in Saturday's papers is heartily concurred in. An old timer here and a life long Conservative is doubtful if Bennett himself could win a seat in any part of the west and blames pressure from the financial oligarchy for Stevens dismissal by Bennett's cabinet and the political suicide the action has accomplished.

Lockhart Youth Smart Farmers

RIMBEY, Oct. 31.—The young people of Lockhart give promise of becoming scientific farmers and expert stockmen as evidenced by the fine showing that district continues to make in all competitions. Miss Velma Gyori and Miss Edna Beddoes were among the winners of Bentley calf club awards, recently and Larry Layton and Harry Beddoes have been chosen to represent their district at the boy's swine club convention to be held in Lacombe. The prize lists of the agricultural and livestock show at Rimbey, last August contained names of many boys and girls from the Lockhart district.

GROCERY FIRM COVERS LARGE AREA IN WEST

H. H. Cooper Limited Sends Out Tea, Coffee, Peanuts, Cocoa

Tea and coffee, peanuts and cocoa, flavoring extracts and jelly powders, baking powder and baking soda, and a dozen other products flow in a steady stream to all parts of western Canada from one Edmonton manufacturing plant: H. H. Cooper, Limited.

There are 56,000 square feet of floor space, some of it devoted to vast supplies of wholesale groceries, in the Cooper building on 104 st., besides shipping docks where motor trucks and railway freight cars load endlessly to carry their cargoes to stores in every direction.

A great mixer turns the green beans into beautifully ground coffee and delivers it to the packing room.

A great blending machine swallows tea imported direct from Ceylon and other fields, and delivers any blend at any price desired. Extracts drip odiferously into bottles and baking powder packs itself into tins.

PAYROLL INCREASED

In the 12 months ending August 15, every operating figure in the Cooper business has been increased. The payroll amounts to $68,500 annually now, compared to slightly over $67,000 a year ago, and the employer number 56. Boxes, made in Edmonton factories from Alberta timber, have been brought to the number of 38,174 in the past year. There have been 197,392 cartons purchased from one Edmonton manufacturer alone and used for packing "Blue Willow" products. There have been 12,000 bottles bought from Alberta factories to contain "Blue Ribbon" liquid products.

Edmonton engravers and printers have been paid $8,000 for labels and illustrations. Edmonton and Alberta have been paid close to $3,000 for telephone service. The post office has been paid $3,013 for stamps. The Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National railways alone have been paid $132,565 as their share of the tremendous freight-charges item.

ALBERTA ENTERPRISE

The Cooper firm is a 100 per cent Alberta enterprise, with 90 per cent of its shareholders in the city of Edmonton, and is one of the greatest wholesale grocery and fruit companies in the west, even apart from its manufacturing end. It is the third firm of its kind which H. H. Cooper himself has launched in Edmonton.

Oppose Ribaldry In Court Trials

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Oct. 31.—Resolutions passed at the all-Ceylon women's conference included, first, that the conference protest against "the tone of ribaldry and vulgar jocularity" which prevailed in the law courts in connection with cases involving the relations of men and women; and secondly, that the conference recommended that legislation be introduced for removing sex disqualification in connection with all Government services.

A group of the conference which dealt with questions of social and moral hygiene arrived at certain findings including, firstly, that more care should be taken in regard to censoring films and that parents should take reasonable precautions for ensuring that young people see only good quality films; secondly, that young people should not be allowed to go to dances unchaperoned or with chance acquaintances.

Study Credit

RIMBEY, Oct. 31.—A study group has been formed here to delve into the Douglas system of social credit. Twenty-two members are enrolled and the following officers elected: President, J. W. Moseley; vice-president, C. C. Lettoy; secretary-treasurer, O. Massing; executive committee, A. McLees, A. McKenzie, Roy Ellis and B. Gunn.

TODAY'S ODDEST NEWS

TWO-HEADED KITTEN DISOWNED BY MOTHER

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—A 2-year-old tabby has the dubious distinction of having a two-headed kitten, born in a litter of triplets. The oddity has two mouths, two noses and four eyes. Otherwise it is normal. The cat is owned by Frances Gentle, 16, of South Philadelphia, who said she would attempt to raise the two-headed kitten by artificial feeding since its mother refused to have anything to do with it.

CLIMATE ARGUMENT ENDS IN RAZOR FIGHT

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 31.—John Roth is a native son of California and proud of it. He tried to convince Charles Carson there was no better climate in the world.

ONLY ONE OF THEM DIED WITH HIS SHOES ON

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 31.—Frank Ase, 50, dying after a gun duel, asked to have his shoes removed so he might not die "with his shoes on." When no one volunteered, he used the last of his waning strength to take them off himself. The other principal in the shooting, Rex Bowen, died instantly.

National Blend Tea And Coffee Co. Progresses

The National Blend Tea and Coffee company reports a steady increase in the demand for better grades of tea and coffee, which gives an indication of better times.

The National Blend has kept pace with this return to prosperity that has returned to Edmonton during the past year. They have just recently installed a new and exclusive coffee machine, the only one of its kind in Alberta. This machine was imported direct from Germany and coffee that is ground by it is used in new "Silex" coffee percolators.

During Edmonton Days the National Blend extends a cordial invitation to city and country people to drop in to their plant on Jasper Avenue and witness the packing and blending of their teas and coffees.

MUNDARE SCENE TEACHERS' MEET

MUNDARE, Oct. 31.—The teachers of Fort Saskatchewan-Mundare district association held their third meeting Saturday in Mundare. About 50 teachers were present. Speakers from Edmonton included Dr. Smith from the school of education of the University of Alberta, A. J. H. Powell and Alderman H. D. Ainlay.

Dr. Smith outlined "A Teachers' Conference Method," stressing the need of committees to work together in dealing with the unsatisfactory child. Mr. Powell traced conditions in Germany since the movement to technology, through the war period, and post-war conditions. Dr. Liebe added some brief comments on conditions in Germany as he found them.

Alderman Ainlay preceded his remarks by paying tribute to the late Alderman C. L. Gibbs, M.L.A., who was a speaker at the last meeting of this teacher group. He was optimistic as to the future of the teaching profession, and urged making professional membership a requisite to teaching.

H. A. White, mayor of the town, welcomed the visiting teachers and distinguished speakers at a banquet in the evening.

Police Hunting Hit-Run Driver In Killam Death

KILLAM, Oct. 31.—No trace has been found by police, according to last reports, of the hit-and-run truck driver believed to be responsible for the death of Leonard Doddington, 21, who was struck down near here on the night of October 20 while riding his motorcycle. An inquest is to be held within a few days by Coroner Dr. J. R. Murray of Sedgewick.

Doddington died a few hours after he was admitted to hospital here. Having worked in the harvest, he was on his way home to Rochester.

The funeral at Rochester, Friday, was attended by many of the young people. Doddington was born in Lacombe and lived in Rochester most of his life. He is survived by his widowed mother, three sisters and three brothers.

Calgary To Vote On City Manager

CALGARY, Oct. 31.—Electors of Calgary will have the opportunity at the forthcoming municipal elections to decide if Calgary is to have a city manager form of government. At a meeting of the city council last night authorization was granted for the holding of a plebiscite on the question at the civic elections on November 21.

Lonira Woman Gored By Bull

LONIRA, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Alex Ungarian suffered four broken ribs, a broken breast bone and internal injuries when she was gored by a bull on her farm, last Wednesday. Her condition was critical following the attack but she is believed to be improving at present.

Cocktails, according to an English expert, are about the worst form in which alcohol can be taken.

WELL-ORGANIZED MERCHANDISING FEATURE CITY STORES

NO LAGGING IN METHODS OF MERCHANTS

Skill Shown in Filling the Varied Needs of Customers

The best and newest of stocks are to be had from Edmonton counters and shelves. In an age of invention, of change, Edmonton consumers can be assured of latest products of Canadian industrial systems.

Modish styles in clothing attract the eye. Good workmanship with good appearances feature furniture. Quality and cheapness mark the foodstuffs. Long-wearing and modish footwear is to be had. Whims a host of articles await the buyer's hand—from linens to salt shakers and bath salts.

Polite staffs, trained in the arts of selling and satisfying, stand behind store counters. They know their goods and are eager to attend to every quirk in wants.

Modern equipment, too, is a feature of the city's stores. Goods are handled by speedy machinery or trained hands. Modern transportation hastens delivery.

Quick and good service is the keynote of Edmonton businesses.

Manager Ogilvie Company

Farmers Find Ready Cash Market for Their Grain

This city provides a ready cash market for disposal of farm products from the central and northern sections of Alberta and one of the major outlets, for grain in particular, is the large flour mill operated at 10527 103 street by Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Ltd. At this mill will be found a ready demand for high quality milling wheat.

As an indication of the value of this plant to the city, it may be mentioned that the annual payroll runs around $60,000, while the employees number 80. Each season farmers receive large sums in return for the grain sold to the mill.

The first Ogilvie mill, a very small plant, was started on the banks of the St. Lawrence River by a young Scottish immigrant named John Ogilvie.

The small mill gradually expanded and from a small plant it has grown to be a leader in Canadian milling, with a policy of paying strict attention to quality and fair dealing with customers. From long experience it is in a position to know the needs of Canadian housewives, a knowledge which has resulted in special manufacturing with the home in view.

The Ogilvie company now has a capacity of 20,000 barrels of flour with mills located, in addition to this city, at Montreal, Fort William, Winnipeg and Medicine Hat.

Over and above its mills the company has cereal mills, feed mills, terminal and country elevators located at some 200 points in the prairie provinces.

LEADING FUR DEALERS HAVE FINE OFFERS

Skins of Exceptionally Fine Quality Owing to Severe Winter

Due to the severe winter in the northland last year, the 1934 crop of furs is unusually rich and luxuriant, according to information received from fur trappers and leading fur dealers, who are impressed with the exceptionally fine quality of the skins.

Nature protects the animals against the low temperatures by giving them a thick fine coat. The superior quality of the 1933-34 skins has caused an increase in the fur trade during the past season, and huge consignments purchased at the northern trading points have passed through Edmonton. Furriers in this city, too, have taken advantage of the splendid skins this year in the making of coats for fall and winter wear.

George Robinson, of the Robinson fur store, is pleased to welcome his many city and out-of-town friends who plan to shop during "Edmonton Days." At this popular furrier's establishment prospective purchasers will see smart fur coat models made from 1934 furs. Mr. Robinson is an expert in the trade.

The Louis Trudel Fur Co., extends a hearty welcome to city and country customers during "Edmonton Days." The Trudel store invites each and every one to inspect the extensive and up-to-date manufacturing quarters where fur coats are deftly cut and modelled from the best of skins. The latest fashions are created here.

Mr. Goldman, of the Goldman Fur Co., states he is in an excellent position to supply customers with the highest-grade skins, having completed his annual tour in search of the best furs at the various northern trading posts. Making his trip by airplane, Mr. Goldman calls at Fort Chipewyan and other points in the northland where trappers leave their furs. For this reason he feels he is able to boast the finest selection.

More First Aids Along Highways

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—Extension of the system of first-aid posts for injured persons to the main highways in northern and western Ontario is contemplated by the joint committee of Ontario Motor League, Canadian Red Cross and St. John Ambulance Associations directing the scheme.

Staffed by voluntary workers trained in first aid work and quick contact with established agencies, the score of posts on number two highway between Toronto and Montreal have given very efficient service in the first three months of operation the past summer. Reports to the committee indicate justification for extending the system to other highways as soon as possible.

First aid systems on much travelled roads have been in operation in some European countries for quite a while. The Ontario committee has received enquiries from the United States and other parts of Canada regarding the adoption of similar systems on this continent.

SURPRISE HITS COURT DURING DIVORCE TRIAL

VEGREVILLE, Oct. 31.—What is described as an unprecedented occurrence, dramatic, and a surprise, occurred in supreme court here Monday when, after the evidence for the plaintiff in the divorce action of Andrew Marceniuk of Plain Lake against his wife Annie, was completed, an individual who subsequently gave his name as John Swirpun, roared in thunderous tones from the body of the hushed courtroom:

"I am a Canadian citizen and I object." Despite efforts of police and court officials to silence the interrupter, he continued to remonstrate. "This divorce should, not be granted." "I am a Canadian citizen and have a right to speak," he shouted.

"Perhaps you are right," said Jr. Justice Ewing, after admonishing the man for the unseemliness of his particular manner of approach. "You will take the stand and be sworn."

Swirpun, who gave his occupation as poolroom operator and implement agent of Bantuffy, then testified that Marceniuk, the plaintiff in the action, had refused to buy clothing for his wife and spent the income from his farm on liquor.

In cross-examining witness, Vj R. Baldwin, counsel for plaintiff, asked: "Do you make your living from moonshine?"

"If I did I wouldn't tell you," replied Mr. Swirpun.

Several witnesses for the plaintiff were then called and vigorously denied the allegations respecting the shortcomings of Marceniuk made by Swirpun.

A case of theft of a horse in which Paul Woy of Viking appeared as the defendant occupied nearly the whole of the day. Defendant was finally convicted of being possessed of a stray animal and was subjected to a fine of $75.

EASY DINNER DISH

One pound hamburg, one small onion, diced; one and one-half cups tomatoes, pinch chili powder, grated cheese, three eggs, one pint mushrooms or puff balls. Fry onions in butter until browned. Add hamburg, crumbled, brown, adding salt and pepper to taste. Add tomatoes, mix well. Add chili powder and two cups cooked rice. Cook on slow heat for 10 minutes. Serve with grated cheese and hard cooked eggs on top. Serve the mushrooms browned in butter as an accompaniment.

Shot Big Tiger; Had Eaten Men

FOOCHOW, China, Oct. 31. — A ferocious man-eating tiger, a mammoth beast which struck terror to the hearts of Indo-China villages for years, has been killed by Henry Clay Foster, New York sportsman and associate editor of Field and Stream magazine.

The animal, 11½ feet long and weighing 500 pounds, was one of the largest ever bagged in the deep jungles. Natives remained in constant fear because of the beast's depredations. Shortly before the New Yorker killed it, two Meo fishermen had been waylaid and eaten.

Foster was tracking elephants with Albert Plas, famous Saigon guide, when relatives of the slain tribesmen beseeched the hunters to run down and kill the tiger. Foster and Plas were led to the scene of the tiger's kill. They placed bait. After a two-day wait, the animal appeared and Foster shot it.

Veteran Mariner Ends Sea Career

HERRON, N.S., Oct. 31.—Captain Wilfred Wyman sailed the seven seas for 50 years and travelled more than 1,000,000 miles of sea lanes in wind-jammers and steam-driven craft, but now the time has come to settle down and he has picked a cottage near here, within hearing of the surf-beat of the Atlantic ocean.

The 68-year-old seaman, who has maintained the finest traditions of a long family of sea captains, climbed from his first position as cabin boy to master of his own schooner. He was only 13 when he signed on a four-master sailing out of Yarmouth, N.S.

When steam was coming into use Captain Wyman transferred his attention from the wind-jammer to machine-driven vessels and took a position on a boat as second mate. Before long he again rose to the top and captained his vessel—this time propelled by steam instead of wind.

At the time of his retirement Captain Wyman was the master of the C.G.M.M. freighter, Canadian Conqueror, which traded between New York, Boston, Halifax and Australian ports.

Woman Is Needed To Defend Right

POONA, India, Oct. 31.—The introduction of an Indian Mrs. Pankhurst to the Bombay legislative council by nomination was urged on the government by A. R. Achrekar in a very able delivered speech on the Hindu Adoption Bill brought before the House for the first reading.

Hindu laws, said Mr. Achrekar, had not yet been made. They had evolved, but the evolution had been prompted by men, and he found that they were full of flaws so far as the rights of women were concerned. The bill before the House was liable to interfere with the rights of women, and he thought the government, in order to protect them, should have nominated a Hindu woman to stand up for these rights on the floor of the House. His final point in opposing the bill was that the Hindu law originally did not recognize property at all.

When the first reading was carried there was a cry that it had been carried by the Muslim vote. That was not so. There were 21 for the "ayes" and 15 for the "noes." Four Muslim members voted for the "ayes" and one for the "noes," which left 16 non-Muslims against 14. The government members did not vote.

New Dionne Baby Is Due Next April

CALLANDER, Ont., Oct. 31.—Reports that the stork is again hovering over the home of Mrs. Ernest Dionne, mother of the internationally famous quintuplets, were confirmed by authoritative sources today.

The quintuplets may expect the arrival of another addition to the Dionne brood some time in April, it was said.

The five baby daughters of Mrs. Dionne were 151 days old today.

Absolute zero, the point at which there is a complete absence of heat, exists at 459.6 degrees Fahrenheit.
